The Truth About Halloween Unmasking Satans High Dark Day:

The Truth About Halloween Ross Edward Silke, 2019-06-05 The Truth About Halloween explores what to do from a Christian perspective for kids adults families and parents the book touches on the subject with a clear explanation as to what is appropriate for the Christian and moral believer October 31 Although the holiday is dedicated from a medieval perspective as honouring and worshipping Satan it has been hundreds of years since its pagan introduction and the holiday is really in illumination of children getting to know one another dressing up and meeting their neighbours door to door so there is some good in Halloween despite its historical meaning it can be handled appropriately and given to Jesus as a celebration of children and their right to freedom rather than a day to honour and worship Satan enemy to the church Jesus can take anything created for evil and turn it into good which I think He has overtime given this holiday Read this book to explore more of the topic and in finding peace concerning this traditional children and family holiday
