The Time And The Place And Other Stories:

Reno (by the) in the Lake and Other Stories Jim Hartman, 2010-03-31 I guess in truth Reno by the in the Lake is my Autobiography Light The material is indeed autobiographical in that little has been gleaned from any outside source and it is definitely light both in serious content and the serious nature often portrayed by an autobiography So read on just for fun Reno Beach was a magical place in the 1920s 30s 40s and 50s a resort town that never really quite reached its prime It had however attained great stature in the hearts and minds of all it entertained especially in the imagination of a young boy who could see adventure even in the smallest buttonhole or banal blemish In his mind a vegetable garden became a wilderness plantation An overturned rowboat became a fortress a pirate s treasure cave or a magician s maudlin mansion A willow tree only recently uprooted by the wind and waves of an angry possessive lake trying desperately to reclaim its own this became the perfect home for Tarzan Jimmie of the Apes The fact that I m even writing this book belies the fact that the place and that little boy still live if only in my imagination The stories you re about to read are about that small waterfront community just east of Toledo Ohio on the western end of Lake Erie and how it s life death and frequent revitalizations affected the life of one small boy namely me The stories are absolutely true except as altered by an aging memory wishful thinking and delusions of grandeur not necessarily in that order and they represent some of the very best days of my life I ve been told that it s good to share your very best I hope you enjoy reading my stories nearly as much as I enjoyed living them The writings been fun too Some names and places may have been altered to protect the innocent and or the guilty but not many Some may also be changed just because I ve forgotten or don t really know what I m talking about Please forgive me Many may recognize themselves a friend or family member in some of these stories and each one probably deserves whatever treatment or attention they received either good or bad This book is intended to be a Bathroom Book This is not a negative For those unable to grasp this creative terminology I provide the following explanation in the form of a prescription Take in small doses Continuous exposure could be hazardous to your health and could lead to an abrasive situation requiring an immediate application of Preparation H This does not imply that either you the reader or the writer is full of Anything Should you disapprove of any of the material in this book please feel free to remove the offending pages and put them to better use right there in the Reading Room solving the problems of the moment I m sure you understand Enjoy Life is short Don t waste it on seriousness

MacDonald,1909 Visualising Place, Memory and the Imagined Sarah De Nardi,2019-11-11 This book probes into how communities and social groups construct their understanding of the world through real and imagined experiences of place The book seeks to connect the dots of the factual and the imaginary that form affective networks of identities which help shape local memory and sense of self and community as well as a sense of the past It exploits the concept of make believe spaces in the environment storytelling and mnemonic narratives as a social framework that aligns and informs the everyday memory worlds of communities Drawing upon fieldwork in cultural heritage community archaeology social history and conflict history and anthropology this text offers a methodological framework within which social groups may position and enact the multiple senses of place and senses of the past inhabited and performed in different cultural contexts This book serves to illustrate a useful visualisation methodology which can be used in participatory fieldwork and thus will be of interest to heritage specialists ethnographers and cultural geographers and oral history practitioners who will particularly find the methodology cheap easy to replicate and enjoyable for community based projects The Hunter and Other Stories Dashiell Hammett,2013-11-19 The Hunter Shortlisted for the 2015 CWA Short Story Dagger A new collection of crime stories from the legendary hard boiled writer Dashiell Hammett The author of classic novels The Thin Man and The Maltese Falcon Hammett has been called a master of the detective novel yes but also one hell of a writer The Boston Globe while Raymond Chandler raved that Hammett wrote scenes that seemed never to have been written before Two previously unseen Thin Man novellas were recently published together as Return of the Thin Man which garnered strong praise the New York Journal of Books called it a reason to rediscover why Dashiell Hammett was the peerless master of crime fiction in all its dark and bloody glory while The Wall Street Journal praised it as an occasion for delight This new collection The Hunter and Other Stories includes several more never before published short stories and like the screen stories from Return of the Thin Man the pieces here read as novellas rich in both story and character that no Hammett fan should do without The Hunter and Other Stories includes new Hammett stories gleaned from his personal archives along with screen treatments long buried in film industry files screen stories unpublished and rarely published fiction and intriguing unfinished narratives Hammett is regarded as both a pioneer and master of hard boiled detective fiction but these dozen and a half stories which explore failed romance courage in the face of conflict hypocrisy and crass opportunism show him in a different light Featuring the title story about a dogged PI unwilling to let go of a seemingly trivial case the collection also includes two full length screen treatments On the Make is the basis for the rarely seen 1935 film Mister Dynamite about a corrupt detective who never misses an opportunity to take advantage of his clients rather than help them The Kiss Off is the basis for City Streets 1931 in which Gary Cooper and Sylvia Sydney are caught in a romance complicated by racketeering s obligations and temptations The Writings of Mark Twain [pseud.]: The$30,000 bequest and other stories Mark Twain,1903
