The Trinity In Asian Perspective:

The Trinity in Asian Perspective Jung Young Lee, 1996 In order to grasp this fact we need different conceptual categories not only with which to view God but all of reality Asian Contextual Theology for the Third Millennium Paul S Chung, Veli Matti Karkkainen, Kim Kyoung-Jae, 2010-03-25 In this volume an attempt is undertaken to highlight the genesis progress and transformation of Asian contextual theology of minjung introducing its historical point of departure its development and its transformation in light of younger Korean and Korean American scholars endeavors In this regard the new Asian contextual theology which is emerging strives to integrate both minjung and the wisdom of World Religions into its own framework and direction assuming the character of a public theology and remaining humble and open before God's mystery while featuring its association with minjung in a holistic way The Encyclopedias of Christianity, Vol. 5 Erwin Fahlbusch, Geoffrey William Bromiley, 1999 Written by leading scholars from around the world the articles in this volume range from sin Sufism and terrorism to theology in the 19th and 20th centuries Vatican I and II and the virgin birth The Trinitarian Dharma Pabitra Mani Bhandari, 2025-02-25 As the gospel continues to spread to the farthest corners of the world the Christian faith encounters an array of diverse cultures religions philosophies and belief systems This encounter serves as a catalyst for transformation as Christianity both influences and is influenced by the new frontiers it reaches The book at hand endeavors to explore this dynamic process particularly focusing on the Trinitarian theology as a potent force for transformation Moreover it seeks to uncover the resonance between Christian concepts and the rich tapestry of Dharma thereby enhancing our understanding of the Trinity In essence this book serves as a pivotal example of how abstract theological ideas can be made relevant and meaningful in the context of a multicultural and multireligious world It embodies an approach to Christian theology that is both interreligious and interdisciplinary emanating from a global Christian perspective that embraces diversity and dialogue A Theology of Dao Kim, Heup Young, 2017-06-22 Grassroots Asian Theology Simon Chan, 2014-05-02 A dynamic chapter of church history is now being written in Asia But the theological inflections at its heart are not well understood by outsiders Simon Chan explores Asian Christianity at its grassroots sustaining level and finds a vibrant implicit theology that is authentically Asian More than a survey this is a serious and constructive contribution to Asian theology Christ and the Tao Heup Young Kim, 2010-11-01 This volume is a collection of six essays that Dr Kim published in various journals over the past several years They represent the early period of Dr Kim's theological journey into Christian faith as a Korean Christian or more broadly an East Asian Christian These essays deal primarily with religious cultural themes related to my existential situation from the Preface The Tao of Asian American Belonging Hertig, Young Lee, 2019-08-29 This book expresses a quest for inclusion amid feminist womanist and mujerista discourses Hertig's yinist spirituality is a novel attempt to lift up the voices of female Asian American voices in Christian ecological theology She coined the term yinist in the 1990s to name the nameless Asian American feminism The term yin refers to the feminine energy of Taoism in contrast to the male yang This book will be a valuable resource for the academy churches and denominational leaders Martin Luther and Buddhism Paul S. Chung,2008-02-02 Martin Luther and Buddhism Aesthetics of Suffering carefully traces the historical and theological context of Luther s breakthrough in terms of articulating justification and justice in connection to the Word of God and divine suffering Chung critically and constructively engages in dialogue with Luther and with later interpreters of Luther such as Barth and Moltmann placing the Reformer in dialogue not only with Asian spirituality and religions but also with emerging global theology of religions The Holy Spirit, Chi, and the Other Grace Ji-Sun Kim,2011-09-20 There appears to be a hierarchy of cultures with the West perceiving the East as inferior so much so that it is referred to simply as the Other Because today s world is globally interdependent inter woven and integrative it is pertinent to be open to the cultural spiritual and religious understandings of the East The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Nature Laura Hobgood,Whitney A. Bauman,2018-05-17 Divided into four parts Earth Air Fire and Water this book takes an elemental approach to the study of religion and ecology It reflects recent theoretical and methodological developments in this field which seek to understand the ways that ideas and matter minds and bodies exist together within an immanent frame of reference The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Nature focuses on how these matters materialize in the world around us thereby addressing key topics in this area of study The editors provide an extensive introduction to the book as well as useful introductions to each of its parts The volume s international contributors are drawn from the USA South Africa Netherlands Norway Indonesia and South Korea and offer a variety of perspectives voices cultural settings and geographical locales This handbook shows that human concern and engagement with material existence is present in all sectors of the global community regardless of religious tradition It challenges the traditional methodological approach of comparative religion and argues that globalization renders a comparative religious approach to the environment insufficient Asian Christian Theology Timoteo D. Gener,Stephen T. Pardue,2019-07-31 Asian Christian Theology provides a survey of contextually reflective robustly evangelical theology for students to engage with the core doctrines of Christianity and their outworking in different cultures across Asia The contributors of the chapters come from all corners of Asia to systematically examine traditional doctrinal themes and contemporary concerns for the Asian church Ideal for use as a companion textbook in Asian seminaries and institutions this book will also provide excellent further reading for those outside of Asia seeking global theological perspectives and for those in contexts of significant Asian diaspora Many excellent books surveying theology exist but this book is a major step forward for students and scholars seeking to understand the dynamic environment of evangelical theology in Asia An Infinite God and a Father-Son God Kenan Osborne,2019-05-29 In this last work Kenan Osborne addresses the intersection between new scientific insights into the origin of the human species and the growing awareness of a multicultural and multi religious world with our contemporary understanding of God After a review of current presentations of Trinitarian theology he analyzes in detail the biblical record for the names of God and develops a cogent description of the thinking about God in the first six centuries Complementing his 2015 volume The Infinity of God and A Finite World A Franciscan Approach this present work challenges theologians and believers in two distinct ways Do the terms Father and Son have any essential meaning for divinity From a human standpoint God is essentially neither a Father nor a Son Nor do these two words have some exclusive meaning when they refer to divinity What then do we mean when we talk about God Second in many theological textbooks the term infinite is considered as an attribute of God Infinity is in no way an attribute even a divine attribute It is rather an essential description of God as the Franciscan philosophical theologian John Duns Scotus argues And if this is so can we really understand God or are all our views and descriptions of an infinite God partial insights into a transcendent infinite God who embraces all human creatures from the beginning of homo sapiens sapiens to the present Christianity with an Asian Face Peter C. Phan, 2015-02-19

Redemption That Liberates Wonho Jung, 2018-02-08 This book is for both evangelicals and ecumenicals interested in a holistic approach to the Christian vision of social transformation The author compares Richard Mouw s Reformed political theology and Nam dong Suh s Minjung theology to suggest a vision of transformation that is theologically more cogent and politically more engaged In general Minjung theology understands transformation in terms of political liberation and Reformed theology in terms of spiritual redemption and theologians of the two theologies have criticized the other s approach as theologically inadequate However Suh s formulation of Minjung theology and Mouw s Reformed political theology based on the neo Calvinist worldview show significant affinities with each other in their understanding of transformation in Christ Both Suh and Mouw show a broad understanding of liberation and redemption They develop their theologies in an inclusive both and way of thinking and their holistic approach is contrasted with the exclusive either or way of thinking in the Minjung theology of Byung mu Ahn and the Reformed theology of David VanDrunen The book concludes that redemption in Christ aims at an all encompassing transformation that includes not only spiritual renewal but also liberation from social alienation economic inequality and political oppression Reforming the Doctrine of God F. LeRon Shults, 2005-11 Linking traditional attributes of God with contemporary philosophy F LeRon Shults culminates with a reformed doctrine of God that revolves around themes of God s omniscient faithfulness omnipotent love and omnipresent hope Being Religious Interreligiously Peter C. Phan, 2015-02-25 Intersecting Realities Hak Joon Lee, 2018-11-13 Experiencing racial marginalization in society and pressures for success in family Asian American Christian young adults must negotiate being socially underpowered culturally dissonant and politically marginal To avoid misunderstandings and conflicts within and without their communities more often than not they hide their true thoughts and emotions and hesitate to engage in authentic conversations outside their very close knit circle of friends In addition these young adults might not find their church or Christian fellowship to be a safe and hospitable place to openly struggle with all of these sorts of questions all the while lacking adequate vocabulary or resources to organize their thoughts This book responds to these spiritual moral struggles of Asian American young people by theologically addressing the issues that most intimately and immediately affect Asian American youths sense of identity God race family sex gender friendship money vocation the model minority myth and community uniquely and consistently from the contexts of Asian American young adult life Its goal is to help young Asian Americans develop a healthy balanced organic sense of identity grounded in a fresh and deeper understanding of the Christian faith

The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions, Volume V Mark P. Hutchinson, 2018-10-17 The five volume Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions series is governed by a motif of migration out of England It first traces organized church traditions that arose in Britain and Ireland as Dissenters distanced themselves from a state church defined by diocesan episcopacy the Book of Common Prayer the Thirty Nine Articles and Royal Supremacy but then follows those traditions as they spread beyond Britain and Ireland and also analyses newer traditions that emerged downstream in other parts of the world from earlier forms of Dissent Secondly it does the same for the doctrines church practices stances toward state and society attitudes toward Scripture and characteristic patterns of organization that also originated in earlier British and Irish dissent but that have often defined a trajectory of influence independent of ecclesiastical organizations The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions Volume V follows the spatial cultural and intellectual changes in dissenting identity and practice in the twentieth century as these once European traditions globalized While in Europe dissent was often against the religious state dissent in a globalizing world could redefine itself against colonialism or other secular and religious monopolies The contributors trace the encounters of dissenting Protestant traditions with modernity and globalization changing imperial politics challenges to biblical denominational and pastoral authority local cultures and languages and some of the century s major themes such as race and gender new technologies and organizational change In so doing they identify a vast array of local and globalizing illustrations which will enliven conversations about the role of religion and in particular Christianity

Holy Spirit and Salvation Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2010-01-01 Theologians from the early church to the present have written much about the Holy Spirit and Christian salvation This extensive sourcebook of primary theological texts makes many of these writings available with a description of their context and importance Especially valuable are more recent works emerging from theologians in Africa Asia and Latin America This global perspective coupled with the broad selection of writings from the history of theology makes this the most complete collection of primary source material on these topics
