The United States Air National Guard:

Air National Guard at 60 Susan Rosenfeld, Charles Joseph Gross, 2007 The Air National Guard's role within the Air Force has matured and changed enormously since its establishment as a separate reserve component September 18 1947 Air National Guard members have served around the world and their military experience and civilian skills have proven invaluable as our nation prosecuted conflicts in Korea Vietnam the Persian Gulf Kosovo Afghanistan and Iraq They also served during several major contingencies including the Cuban Missile Crisis and the Berlin Crisis of 1961 and 1962 In addition Air Guard members made major contributions in a host of other operations in Panama the Balkans Somalia Rwanda Haiti and the Iraq no fly zones instituted after Operation Desert Storm In the United States the Hurricane Katrina relief efforts brought into sharp focus the Air Guard's well established role as America's hometown Air Force The Air National Guard flew over 3 000 sorties moved over 30 000 passengers and hauled over 11 000 tons of desperately needed supplies into Gulf Coast airfields some of which Guard personnel opened and operated Air National Guard members rescued 1 443 people heroically saving people stranded by the flood At eight sites along the Gulf Coast Air National Guard medical units treated more than 15 000 patients combining expert medical care with compassion The Air National Guard and the American Military Tradition Charles Joseph Gross, 1995 Recounts the Air National Guard's service and heritage as part of the nation's military forces Traces the militia tradition and connects this story with the rising influence of air power Outlines the Air National Guard's three primary missions to reinforce active duty forces in wartime to assist State governments responding to natural disasters and public emergencies and to provide various community service functions L C card 94 067989 Prelude to the Total Force Charles Joseph Gross, 1984 United States Air National Guard: Fact Sheet , Presents a United States Air Force fact sheet on the Air National Guard ANG which is administered by the National Guard Bureau a joint bureau of the departments of the Army and Air Force Notes that the ANG trains people to augment the active force during national emergencies war natural disasters and civil disturbances Provides further information on missions federal and state personnel flying units and support units Includes contact information Annual Report of the Chief of the National Guard Bureau United States. National Guard Bureau, 1957 Prelude to the Total Force Charles Gross, United Air Force, 2012-05-26 The expanding role of the Guard and its close cooperation with the Air Force are Dr Gross's themes explaining the rise of the Guard to the prominence it plays in today's air operations He pulls no punches in recounting the conflict between Guard and regular Air Force or in explaining how each side maneuvered to safeguard its interests However the author also shows how common concerns and mutual dedication to the national defense overcame parochialism and led from cooperation to integration The result was displayed for all the Air Force to see in the professionalism of Guard units in the 1960s mobilizations Guard and regular Air Force had become vital to each other in return for modern aircraft a substantial peacetime mission and upon mobilization integration into the wartime force the Guard accepted de facto control by the regular Air Force As Dr Gross concludes the concept of state militia was altered far beyond the changes wrought earlier in federal state military relations The Air Guard was ready for the Total Force policy of the 1970s The dilemma of maintaining a reserve fully capable of fighting the air was solved By the 1980s the Air National Guard at the same inheritors of a military tradition extending back before 1776 and users of the most advanced technologies of war could prove that citizen soldiers need not to be second to any airman in the world Contents Forged in Politics 1943 1946 Struggle for Control 1946 1950 Rejuvenation 1950 1953 Integrating with the Active Force 1953 1960 The Cold Warriors 1961 1962 Vindication 1963 1969 Epilogue The Air National Guard and the Total Force united States Air Force Office of Air Force History This is Your Air National Guard United States.
