We Re Heaven Bound We Re Heaven Bound:

We're Heaven Bound! Gregory D. Coleman, 1998-12-01 More than one million people from all walks of life have been uplifted and entertained by Heaven Bound the folk drama that follows through song and verse the struggles between Satan and a band of pilgrims on their way down the path of glory that leads to the golden gates Staged annually and without interruption for more than seventy years at Big Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church in Atlanta Heaven Bound is perhaps the longest running black theater production Here a lifelong member of Big Bethel with many close ties to Heaven Bound recounts its lively history and conveys the enduring power and appeal of an Atlanta tradition that is as much a part of the city as Coca Cola or Gone with the Wind

Hollywood Be Thy Name Judith Weisenfeld, 2007-06-08 From the earliest years of sound film in America Hollywood studios and independent producers of race films for black audiences created stories featuring African American religious practices In the first book to examine how the movies constructed images of African American religion Judith Weisenfeld explores these cinematic representations and how they reflected and contributed to complicated discourses about race the social and moral requirements of American citizenship and the very nature of American identity Drawing on such textual sources as studio production files censorship records and discussions and debates about religion and film in the black press as well as providing close readings of films this richly illustrated and meticulously researched book brings religious studies and film history together in innovative ways

Civil Sights Gene Kansas, 2025-02-01 Once the wealthiest Black neighborhood in the world the Sweet Auburn Historic District in Atlanta Georgia now occupies a distinct place both historically and geographically It is at once the globally significant birthplace of the civil rights movement and it also lays in the wake of social commercial and urban challenges that have left some of its most important spaces and places in a state of peril and even in danger of demolition as Atlanta grows in around and over it Now for the first time author preservationist and cultural developer Gene Kansas shines a spotlight on the district in Civil Sights An illustrated and historic guidebook designed to educate visitors and inspire action Civil Sights not only describes and depicts historically significant Sweet Auburn buildings and streets it also tells the stories of people and places then and now that came together to move mountains before during and after the civil rights movement These are the streets and buildings in which Dr Martin Luther King Jr Congressman John Lewis Roslyn Pope Alonzo Herndon Ella Baker John Wesley Dobbs and countless others laid the groundwork for a social movement of equality that would sweep the country change laws and positively affect lives around the world With accounts of such places as the first integrated fire station and the Butler Street YMCA that served as Atlanta's Black City Hall and of the churches restaurants and entertainment halls that have dotted the neighborhood Kansas unspools a riveting history that also aims to illuminate a path to preservation Most importantly Civil Sights poses questions of historical accountability to us all How are we educating advocating and investing in the causes that Sweet Auburn represents This volume includes illustrations from Atlanta architect Clay Kiningham a

Poetry Carla E. Rutledge, 2012-08-24 This is a collection of poems inspired by the Great Tribulation It describes poetically the difficult times we are living in today We are in a mental spiritual and physical war right now It takes the whole armor of God each and every day just to make it through There is hope though we are awaiting the return of our Lord and savior Jesus Christ for the Bible states he will return and rule the Earth with an iron fist He will have Government on his shoulders and we will have 1 000 years of peace This book will become one of the most read and referred to collections of the recount of this historic time period History is in the making That's Just Your Opinion Moreno Dal Bello, 2015-10-05 A Scriptural rebuttal of the unfounded claims of those who say that no one knows what the Gospel of God is and that the Gospel of God is lost Oftentimes when in the process of declaring the teachings of the Gospel of God the doctrines of salvation by grace one is met with the all too commonly heard phrase That s just your opinion What does such an accusation really mean What motivates the mindset of those whose reply to the Truth is Well that s just your opinion or That s just your point of view or That s just your interpretation What is the mindset behind them and is this way of thinking in accordance with Scripture or does it stand in contrast to and therefore in defiance of Truth This book will examine just exactly what a person is really saying and what the implications are of such comments made after hearing the Gospel of God as well as the consequences of such remarks The First American King George Gordon Hastings, 1905
