EDITED AND INTRODUCED BY STEPHEN G. RAY JR.

We Have Been Believers An African American Systematic Theology

Stanley J. Grenz, Jay T. Smith

We Have Been Believers An African American Systematic Theology:

We Have Been Believers James H. Evans, 1992 In this the first full scale black systematic theology in twenty years James Evans emerges as a major and distinctive voice in American theology Seeking to overcome the chasm between church practice and theological reflection Evans situates theology squarely in the nexus of faith with freedom There with a sure touch he uplifts revelatory aspects of black religious experience that reanimate classical areas of theology and he creates a theology with a heart a soul and a voice that speaks directly to our condition

The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology Katie G. Cannon, Anthony B. Pinn, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology brings together leading scholars in the field to present a critical and comprehensive analysis of African American Theology in its many forms and contexts providing an interdisciplinary examination of the nature content and meaning of this form of theology

Philosophy of Religion and the African American Experience John H. McClendon III, 2017-07-03 Most white philosophers of religion generally presume that philosophy of religion is based on what is a false universality whereby the white Western experience is paradigmatic of humanity at large The fact remains that Howard Thurman James H Cone and William R Jones among others have produced a substantial amount of theological work quite worthy of consideration by philosophers of religion Yet this corpus of thought is not reflected in the scholarly literature that constitutes the main body of philosophy of religion Neglect and ignorance of African American Studies is widespread in the academy By including chapters on Thurman Cone and Jones the present book functions as a corrective to this scholarly lacuna

Religious Education in the African American Tradition Kenneth H. Hill, 2012-11 Schweitzer's goal in this book is to explore what postmodernity actually means for theology and how theology and the church may respond to its challenges He focuses on the life cycle as it is changing with the advent of postmodernity looking sequentially at segments of the life cycle using different lenses modernity postmodernity and responses from church and theology Schweitzer concludes with a theology of the life cycle

The Decline of African American Theology Thabiti M. Anyabwile, 2009-08-20 Thabiti Anyabwile argues that contemporary African American theology has fallen far from the tree of its early American antecedents This book is a goldmine for any reader interested in the history of African American Christianity With a foreword by Mark Noll

SCM Core Text: Black Theology Anthony G. Reddie, 2013-01-26 An accessible introduction to Black Theology helping readers understand the inherited legacy of race ethnicity difference and racism as well as the diversity and vibrancy of this movement

The Myth of Ham in Nineteenth-Century American Christianity S. Johnson, 2004-12-02 This monograph is an original study of what is commonly termed the American myth of Ham It examines black and white Americans recourse to the biblical character of Ham as a cultural strategy for explaining racial origins Previous studies in the area have been restricted to associating the Hamitic idea with pro slavery arguments whereas the thesis of this project reveals a fundamental irony black American Christians who reinforced the meanings of illegitimacy by appealing to Ham as the ancestor of the race

Black Christology and the Quest for Authenticity John H. McClendon III, 2019-05-03 Black Christology and the Quest for Authenticity A Philosophical Appraisal constitutes a philosophical inquiry on Black Theology and its attendant Black Christology Explicitly the philosophical examination of Black Theology conceptually maps its quest for establishing Black Christology as an authentic form within Christian theology This text critically expounds on the methodologies and arguments which guide how Black Theology specifically affirms Black Christology as the definitive paradigm for authentic Christianity Significantly the racialized character of Black Theology immediately sets this discourse within the context of philosophy of race Clearly the philosophy of race in terms of its substance and scope is continually expanding Notably the philosophy of religion in its conceptual association with the African American experience considerably enriches the content of the philosophy of race Therefore Black Christology and the Quest for Authenticity A Philosophical Appraisal stands as a unique contribution to philosophy of race Summarily while this book tackles the formidable problem of Christian theological subject matter nonetheless the reader must be aware that this is not a work executed methodologically in any theological manner inclusive of Christian theology Subsequently while the object of our investigation substantively remains theological in character the method of investigation is guided by philosophical inquiry which is based on secular principles Furthermore although most mainstream works in philosophy of religion along with theology neglect to exam African American theologians and philosophers the subject matter of Black Christology substantially facilitates in filling this intellectual void

Liberation Theologies in the United States Stacey M Floyd-Thomas, Anthony B Pinn, 2010-03-01 Liberation Theologies in the United States reveals how the critical use of religion can be utilized to challenge and combat oppression in America In the nascent United States religion often functioned as a justifier of oppression Yet while religious discourse buttressed such oppressive activities as slavery and the destruction of native populations oppressed communities have also made use of religion to critique and challenge this abuse As Liberation Theologies in the United States demonstrates this critical use of religion has often taken the form of liberation theologies which use primarily Christian principles to address questions of social justice including racism poverty and other types of oppression Stacey M Floyd Thomas and Anthony B Pinn have brought together a stellar group of liberation theology scholars to provide a synthetic introduction to the historical development context theory and goals of a range of U S born liberation theologies Black Theology Anthony B Pinn Womanist Theology Stacey M Floyd Thomas Latina Theology Nancy Pineda Madrid Hispanic Latino a Theology Benjam n Valent n Asian American Theology Andrew Sung Park Asian American Feminist Theology Grace Ji Sun Kim Native Feminist Theology Andrea Smith Native American Theology George Tink Tinker Gay and Lesbian Theology Robert E Shore Goss Feminist Theology Mary McClintock Fulkerson An extraordinary resource for understanding the vitality of liberation theologies and their relation to social transformation in the changing U S context Written in an accessible and engaged way this powerful and informative text will inspire beginners and scholars alike I highly recommend it Kwok Pui lan author of Postcolonial
