Improvising Reconciliation Ed Charlton, 2021-11-15 Improvising Reconciliation lobbies for an expanded approach to South Africa's formal transition from apartheid, grappling with reconciliation's ongoing potential. Rather than correcting the contradictions that have done much to corrupt the concept, it surveys the improvised approach to reconciliation that has emerged from the country's cultural sphere in recent decades. The African World in Dialogue Teresa N. Washington, 2016-11-29 The African World in Dialogue: An Appeal to Action is a probing and politically timely collection of essays, interviews, speeches, poetry, short stories, and proposals. These rich works illuminate the struggles, dreams, triumphs, impediments, and diversity of the contemporary African world. The African World in Dialogue contains five sections: Listen, The Ink Speaks, Restitutions, Resolutions, Revolutions, Africanity, Education and Technology, Life Lines from the Front Lines, and Gender Power and Infinite Promise. Each section brims with provocative and compelling insights from elder warriors, wordsmiths, journalists, and academics, many of whom are also activists. The volume's contributors include Tunde Adegbola, Muhammad Ibn Bashir, Jacqueline Bediako, Charlie Braxton, Aliou Bundu, Baba A. O. Buntu, Chinweizu, Ricardo Cortez, Cruz Oyinlola, Longe Jumbe, Kweku Lumumba, Morgan Miller, Asiri Odu, Chinwe Ezinna, Oriji Kevin, Powell Blair, Marcus Proctor, Ishola Akindele, Salami Aseret, Sin, Teresa N. Washington, and Ayoka Wiles. The book also features interviews with Hilary La Force, Mandingo Kambale, Musavili, and Prince Kuma Ndumbe. With selections designed to critique and in many cases upend conventional political thought, educational norms, fantasies of social progress, and gender myths, The African World in Dialogue challenges its audience. The book's Appeal to Action is literal. Rather than offering eloquent elaborations of African world woes, The African World in Dialogue offers detailed plans and paths for emancipation and elevation that readers are urged to implement. Activists and scholars of African studies, African American studies, Pan Africanism, criminal justice, Black revolutionary thought and action, gender studies, sociology, and political science will find this book to be both inspirational and indispensable. We Cannot Continue Like This Attie S. van Niekerk, Sytse Strijbos, 2022-07-14 We Cannot Continue Like This: Facing Modernity in Africa and the West is a scholarly book strongly focused on the context of Africa, with two chapters that are written by authors from the Netherlands for the purpose of a North-South dialogue. The main thesis of the book is based on the insight that the trajectory of modern development ought not to continue as it is. It is ecologically unsustainable and continues to enlarge the gap between rich and poor. The book centers on an academic analysis of current development practices, mostly in Africa. It addresses four topics that are often neglected in studies on development and sustainability: listening to voices from Africa to counter the hegemony of the Global North; recognizing the importance of spiritual issues in the secular affairs of society; deriving theory from data that was obtained and analyzed in a systematic way; and illustrating the importance of households rather than just governments businesses or academic institutions The manuscript seeks to integrate academic reflection and insights gained from practical involvement with sustainability issues in local communities and low income households with contributions from natural and social sciences and theology The authors respond to the question How can modern science and technology help to solve dilemmas such as unsustainable development (Post)apartheid Conditions D. Hook,2013-08-27 Post apartheid Conditions Psychoanalysis and Social Formation advances a series of psychoanalytic perspectives on contemporary South Africa exploring key psychosocial topics such as space identity social fantasy the body whiteness memory and nostalgia Liberation and Development Leslie Anne Hadfield,2016-05-01 Liberation and Development Black Consciousness Community Programs in South Africa is an account of the community development programs of the Black Consciousness movement in South Africa It covers the emergence of the movement s ideas and practices in the context of the late 1960s and early 1970s then analyzes how activists refined their practices mobilized resources and influenced people through their work The book examines this history primarily through the Black Community Programs organization and its three major projects the yearbook Black Review the Zanempilo Community Health Center and the Njwaxa leatherwork factory As opposed to better known studies of antipolitical macroeconomic initiatives this book shows that people from the so called global South led development in innovative ways that promised to increase social and political participation It particularly explores the power that youth women and churches had in leading change in a hostile political environment With this new perspective on a major liberation movement Hadfield not only causes us to rethink aspects of African history but also offers lessons from the past for African societies still dealing with developmental challenges similar to those faced during apartheid
