

WESTRIDGE SCHOOL

Convocation 2014 Head of School Welcome Address

Our Core Values

Girls – this morning, and throughout the school year, you are going to hear about, talk about, and reflect on the meaning of integrity, respect, responsibility and inclusion. From interacting with you as you have brought your passion and energy back to school over the past few days, I know that many of you have already started to think about these four guiding principles that we should strive to uphold in all that we do. They are fundamental beliefs that will continue to define us and provide a strong sense of who we are as a community.

Where have these four values of integrity, respect, responsibility and inclusion come from? They have been a part of the fabric of Westridge for many years. They appear in the words we have written about ourselves, and in conversations about who we are and who we aspire to be. They are reflected in decisions we have made and actions that have been taken. They are values that should lift us up and bring us together.

And as we enter our second century and reflect on where we wish to go, the time seems right to reaffirm and recommit to these values that can be at the heart of all that we stand for – our core values.

Collectively, we also need to define what these values mean to us and to consider how they can guide our everyday thoughts and actions, and provide the framework within which we can wrestle with difficult decisions and hold ourselves accountable.

I always try to break things into “memory chunks” and to think of examples or stories to illustrate my thinking. So let me share with you some of the ways that I remember these core values and understand what they look like.

There are four core values. If you think of the Westridge “W” – you could write one value along each of the four diagonal lines that make up the letter.

Two of the values start with I; two with R.

As I think about the values, I like to start from what I call the “inside out” – starting with integrity, as it is very personal and introspective, then moving on to respect and responsibility, and ending with inclusion – a value that focuses on bringing everyone together. So for me, arranging the letters in “I-R-R-I” order makes the most sense.

Personal Narratives of Teacher Knowledge Betty C. Eng, 2022-01-01 This book illustrates how the experiential histories of teachers shape and inform the knowledge of teachers as professionals Situating personal experiences into the context of social political and economic events gives clarity to the intercultural dynamics of being Chinese and Western What can we learn from each other to transform our teaching and learning The book engages in a cross cultural perspective that is highly relevant for teachers teacher education curriculum making and policy planning for a global community The book is also an invitation to internationalize the classroom for teaching and learning in a diverse and global world and to educators and policy makers to expand our understanding of cross cultural complexities for an increasingly diversified and global community By viewing the classroom through the multiple lens of different cultures educators have an opportunity to cross over to see experience and understand how others live The Communicating Principal Trinette Marquis, Natalie A.

cinema to see Stephen Spielberg's blockbuster Raiders of the Lost Ark. The dream of emulating his hero Indiana Jones and travelling to the farthest reaches of the planet to explore exotic locations and its wildlife now burned deep inside him. As he progressed at school, this passion to escape and explore was further kindled through the pages of an old natural history encyclopaedia given to him by his grandmother. Devouring the pages, the encyclopaedia would help craft his chosen path in life. Like his hero and namesake Indiana Jones, Rhys's journey has now taken him to all corners of the globe with friends and colleagues at every port, from the Australian outback to the furthest outpost of the Maasai tribe in Eastern Africa. In Becoming Dr Jones, Rhys will take the reader on an inspiring journey through his life, one filled with highs, lows, humour and poignancy, as well as reverent insights into some of the amazing residents of our beloved natural world. If adventure had a name, it would be Jones, and Dr Rhys Jones has taken that mantle to a whole new level. The Priority List David Menasche, 2014-01-14. In this beautiful, heartfelt and ultimately important story about love, kinship, gratitude and miracles, Elizabeth Gilbert, a New York Times bestselling author and a beloved high school English teacher with terminal brain cancer, undertakes a cross-country journey to reunite with his former students in order to find out if he made a difference and discovers what is truly important in life along the way. David Menasche lived for his work as a high school English teacher. His passion inspired his students, and between lessons on Shakespeare and sentence structure, he forged a unique bond with his kids, buoying them through personal struggles while sharing valuable life lessons. When brain cancer ultimately stole David's vision, memory, mobility, and most tragically, of all, his ability to continue teaching, he was devastated by the thought that he would no longer have the chance to impact his students' lives each day. But teaching was something Menasche just couldn't give up. Undaunted by the difficult road ahead of him, he decided to end his treatments and make life his classroom. He turned to Facebook with an audacious plan: a journey across America by bus, by train, by red-tipped cane, in hopes of seeing firsthand how his kids were faring in life. Had he made a difference? Within forty-eight hours of posting, former students in more than fifty cities replied with offers of support and shelter. Traveling more than eight thousand miles from Miami to New York and visiting hundreds of his students, David's fearless journey explores the things we all want and need out of life: family, security, independence, love, adventure, and forces us to stop to consider what truly matters in life. Evocative, moving, and inspirational, Priority List is a rousing testimony to the ways in which, in the face of death, living fully in the present moment becomes possible. Publishers Weekly. The Story of Betsy Connor Arleen Brenner, 2008-03. Prairie Pearl Arleen Brenner, 2004. History is often written by the rich and powerful people of the times. In the 1920s, women were deemed chattels with few or no rights. Where are their stories? For ages 12 and up. The Messages of Its Walls and Fields Katharine Thornton, 2010. The Messages of Its Walls and Fields seeks to understand the culture of each decade of the School's development. The focus is on the boys themselves, but Katharine Thornton also evaluates the policies of succeeding Councils of Governors and the achievements of the thirteen Headmasters who have led Saints from 1847 to 2009. The curriculum story is here, the context
