The Dialectics of Discipleship Chris Swann, 2023-08-24 Interrogating Barth's discipleship shaped vision of sanctification this book investigates both Lutheran and Calvinian source material to develop an account that differs markedly from other Lutheran and Calvinist perspectives Highlighting the robustly theological and Christ centred character of Barth's account Chris Swann demonstrates that far from merely valorising human activity Barth advances an understanding of human moral agency action and suffering that is real but relative to the agency of God in Christ to which it corresponds analogously With a focus on the role the image of discipleship plays in giving conceptual structure and shape to Barth's distinctive account of the correspondence between divine agency and sanctified human agency this book evaluates the ramifications of his discipleship shaped vision of sanctification In doing this it gives special attention to Barth's own personal mixed record with regard to Christian discipleship Ultimately Swann retrieves a number of important resources for contemporary theological ethics from Barth's theology of discipleship
