Think Thru Bible Their Parents:

Thinking through the Mothers Janet Beizer, 2011-03-15 If questions of subjectivity and identification are at stake in all biographical writing they are particularly trenchant for contemporary women biographers of women Often their efforts to exhume buried lives in hope of finding spiritual foremothers awaken maternal phantoms that must be embraced or confronted Do women writing in fact have any greater access to their own mothers lives than to the lives of other women whose stories have been swept away like dust in the debris of the past In Thinking through the Mothers Janet Beizer surveys modern women s biographies and contemplates alternatives to an approach based in lineage and the form of thought that emphasizes the line the path hierarchy unity resemblance reflection and the aesthetic mimesis that depends on these ideas Through close readings of memoirs and fictions about mothers Beizer explores how biographers of the women who came before rehearse and rewrite relationships to their own mothers biographically as they seek to appropriate the past in a hybrid genre she calls bio autobiography Thinking through the Mothers features the work of George Sand and Colette and spans such varied figures as Gustave Flaubert Julian Barnes Louise Colet Eunice Lipton Vladimir Nabokov Huguette Bouchardeau and Christa Wolf Beizer seeks an alternative to women s salvation biography or resurrection biography that might resist nostalgia be attentive to silence and reinvent the means to represent the lives of precursors without appropriating traditional models of genealogy

Thinking Through the Arts Wendy Schiller, 2004-06 Thinking Through the Arts draws together a number of different approaches to teaching young children that combine the experience of thinking with the act of expression through art Developed as an inclusive broad ranging and user friendly text Thinking Through the Arts presents the unique insight of teachers as researchers and counters the view that art is emotionally based and therefore irrelevant to thinking and learning The areas covered include drama dance music arts environments technologies museums and galleries literacy cognition international influences curriculum development research and practice Early childhood and primary teachers and students alike will find this book is an invaluable source of new insights for their own teaching

Telling God's Stories with Power Paul F. Koehler, 2010-06-01 Biblical Storytelling in Oral Cultures This is a complete and practical introduction to storying especially for people who want to learn about using biblical storytelling in cross cultural contexts and who want to train others to become storytellers It includes many fascinating accounts of the responses of tribal people to the first proclamation of the gospel through storytelling The result of years of research and field testing Telling God s Stories with Power is a product of the author s own journey as he confronted the challenges of teaching the Bible in parts of the world where people are unaccustomed to a Western style of learning Full of innovative and groundbreaking insights this study is packed with ideas explanations and constructive suggestions stated in clear and simple language Throughout the book there are extensive examples from the storytellers own experiences Tracing the movement of the biblical stories across multiple generations of tellers and listeners storytelling is found to be superior for knowledge transfer and for bypassing resistance to the gospel in oral contexts thus presenting clear evidence of the effectiveness of biblical narrative among oral learners

Thinking Through Translation with Metaphors James St.Andre,2014-04-08 Thinking through Translation with Metaphors explores a wide range of metaphorical figures used to describe the translation process from Aristotle to the present Most practitioners and theorists of translation are familiar with a number of metaphors for translation such as the metaphor of the bridge following in another's footsteps performing a musical score changing clothes or painting a portrait yet relatively little attention has been paid to what these metaphorical models reveal about how we conceptualize translation Drawing on insights from recent developments in metaphor theory contributors to this volume reveal how central metaphorical language has been to translation studies at all periods of time and in various cultures Metaphors have played a key role in shaping the way in which we understand translation determining what facets of the translation process are deemed to be important and therefore merit study and aiding in the training of successive generations of translators and theorists While some of the papers focus mainly on past metaphorical representations others discuss recent shifts in both metaphor and translation theory while others still propose innovative metaphors in a bid to transform translation studies The volume also includes an annotated bibliography of works centrally concerned with metaphors of translation

In Their Parents' Voices Rita J. Simon,Rhonda M. Roorda,2007-10-02 Rita J Simon and Rhonda M Roorda's In Their Own Voices Transracial Adoptees Tell Their Stories shared the experiences of twenty four black and biracial children who had been adopted into white families in the late 1960s and 70s The book has since become a standard resource for families and practitioners and now in this sequel we hear from the parents of these remarkable families and learn what it was like for them to raise children across racial and cultural lines These candid interviews shed light on the issues these parents encountered what part race played during thirty plus years of parenting what they learned about themselves and whether they would recommend transracial adoption to others Combining trenchant historical and political data with absorbing firsthand accounts Simon and Roorda once more bring an academic and human dimension to the literature on transracial adoption

Tentmaking Patrick Lai, 2006-01-05 Those who are unfamiliar with the world of tentmaking will find valuable information to introduce them to the concept and to help in getting started Designed to be a manual Tentmaking is more than just an overview of questions and issues This work will serve as an in depth reference for existing tentmakers This thoroughly researched collection is the result of interviews from over 450 people serving in the 10 40 window It provides a unique viewpoint on missions sharing proven workable alternatives to conventional missionary life Tentmaking provides an important and much needed resource to this specialized area of world missions The Ladies' Repository , 1867 The Friend , 1879 The Generations Project Wei-Hao Ho, Soo-Inn Tan, 2023-05-24 The Generations Project offers churches in Singapore tangible data and an interpretive map for navigating congregational life and leadership today This courageous study by Graceworks gifts congregations and church leaders with a vital and contextualised map of different generations of Christians in Singapore The rest is up to us you and me Will we take Jesus command to love one another seriously One of the ways we can do this is to use this study as a conversation starter and catalyst for careful study in our local churches This book is a compelling encouragement for us to love one another better We get better at loving one another by gaining more understanding and learning to be more practiced in bridging our generational differences From the Foreword by Rev Dr Bernard Chao As for Me and My House Daryl J. Potts, 2020-07-10 The verse Joshua 24 15 as for me and my house we will serve the Lord has been the desire and declaration of ministry couples for centuries Yet the heartache of many ministers and their spouses is the realization that even though they have ministered to many and have been instruments to strengthen people s spiritual lives the spiritual well being of their own immediate family is not always where they would like it to be Many sadly observe members of their own family who no longer attend church having turned away from the faith For many ministers and spouses both those presently in ministry and those starting out there is a great desire to find keys to prevent their family members from falling away from the faith The heart of every pastoral couple is to function in their ministry and at the same time see their family flourish In the light of the dearth of research regarding the ministry family journey this book investigates how ministers and their spouses perceive that their involvement in ministry affects their family lives It further reveals the components that contribute toward the spiritual well being of their family while fulfilling their unique ministry responsibilities Salvation by Grace Through Faith: The Gospel, Obedience, and Calvinism David

Pratte,2019-10-16 A study of the fundamentals of salvation according to the gospel through the blood of Jesus Christ Includes a careful study of obedient faith compared to Calvinism Topics discussed include the following The sacrifice of Jesus Christ The importance of the gospel faith obedience repentance confession A careful study of baptism its purpose action and proper subject Should an alien sinner pray for forgiveness What does it mean to be born again The importance of living a faithful life as a Christian The importance of Jesus church Forgiveness for children of God who return to error Original sin and inherited depravity Election and predestination Grace and mercy of God Falling from grace Once Saved Always Saved Faith only or obedient faith Understanding Atonement Gary A. Fox,2019-09-24 At some point in the Christian faith journey most people ask the question Why did Jesus die The most common answer is For my sins But what if Jesus died because of the sin of humanity not for individual sins It seems weirdly illogical for a God who is love 1 John 4 8 to demand a blood sacrifice to cover sin It is not what the Jewish sacrificial system supported either I hope that this book will help us understand that God loves us and will not forsake us Ever Forgiveness is about love not punishment
