Beginning in 1869 when the study of homosexuality can be said to have begun with the establishment of sexology this Encyclopedia offers accounts of the most important international developments in an area that now occupies a critical place in many fields of academic endeavours While gays and lesbians have shared many aspects of life their histories and cultures developed in profoundly different ways To reflect this crucial fact the Encyclopedia has been prepared in two separate volumes assuring that both histories receive full unbiased attention and that a broad range of human experience is covered Written by some of the most famous names in the field as well as new researchers this is intended as a reference for students and scholars in all areas of study as well as the general public Gendered Identity and the Lost Female Shrabani

Basu,2022-08-31 This book offers an exploration of the postcolonial hybrid experience in anglophone Caribbean plays and performance from a feminist perspective In a hitherto unattempted consideration of Caribbean theatre and performance this study of gendered identities chronicles the postcolonial hybrid experience and how it varies in the context of questions of sex performance and social designation In the process it examines the diverse performances of the anglophone Caribbean The work includes works by Caribbean anglophone playwrights like Derek Walcott Mustapha Matura Michael Gikes Dennis Scott Trevor Rhone Earl Lovelace and Errol John with more recent works of Pat Cumper Rawle Gibbons and Tony Hall The study would also engage with Carnival calypso and chutney music while commenting on its evolving influences over the hybrid imagination Each section covers the dominant socio political thematics associated with the tradition and its effect on it followed by an analysis of contemporaneously significant literary and cultural works plays carnival narrative and calypso and chutney lyrics as well as the experiences of performers From Lovelace s fictional Jestina to the real life Drupatee the book critically explores the marginalization of female performances while forming a hybrid identity

After Eden Mary Stewart Van Leeuwen,1993 Written by an interdisciplinary team of scholars this substantial volume offers a wide ranging examination from a Christian perspective of the many complexities surrounding gender relations showing how they have changed and how they still need to change if we are to be the men and women God meant us to be No other book treats the systemic embedding of gender issues in all areas of life

What's Wrong with Stereotyping? Erin Beeghly,2025-02-20 What s Wrong with Stereotyping offers a refreshing and accessibly written philosophical take on the ethics of stereotyping Stereotyping is woven into every aspect of human experience conversation psychology algorithmic systems and culture It relates to generalization and induction core aspects of rationality But when and why it is morally wrong to stereotype This book tackles this deep and enduring puzzle To solve it Erin Beeghly delves into the relationship between stereotyping and another phenomenon discrimination Not only does stereotyping cause discriminatory treatment she argues stereotyping can itself be discriminatory This insight that to stereotype is to discriminate enables a novel philosophical methodology which builds towards a theory of wrongful stereotyping by analyzing the lived experiences of marginalized groups and existing theories of wrongful discrimination Core chapters evaluate important ethical wrongs the failure to treat persons as individuals disrespect harm prejudice threats to freedoms and the failure to treat persons as equals One finds that there is no essence of wrongful stereotyping a single property or set of properties that all problematic cases share in common Nor are the wrongs of stereotyping reducible to an elegant number two or three Instead wrongful stereotyping is a messy normative kind characterized by clusters of wrong making properties including all the ones noted here and perhaps more Readers will come away with a radically pluralistic open ended theory of wrongful stereotyping that they can use to identify wrongful stereotyping in their own lives and our contemporary world Filled with thought provoking examples and models for social change this book emphasizes the messiness of moral reality and the importance of looking to the past in order to understand the ethical perils of stereotyping

The Wound and the Stitch Loretta Victoria Ramirez,2024-05-28 The Wound and the Stitch traces a history of imagery and language centered on the concept of woundedness and the stitching together of fragmented selves Focusing particularly on California and its historical violences against Chicax bodies Loretta Victoria Ramirez argues that woundedness has become a ubiquitous and significant form of Chicax self representation especially in late twentieth century print media and art Ramirez maps a genealogy of the female body from late medieval Iberian devotional sculptures to contemporary strategies of self representation By doing so she shows how wounds metaphorical physical historical and linguistic are inherited and manifested as ongoing violations of the body and othered forms of identity Beyond simply exposing these wounds however Ramirez also shows us how they can be healed or rather stitched Drawing on Mesoamerican concepts of securing stability during lived turmoil or nepantla Ramirez investigates how creators such as Cherr e Moraga Renee Tajima Pe a Guillermo G mez Pe a and Amalia Mesa Bains repurpose the concept of woundedness to advocate for redress and offer delicate ephemeral moments of healing Positioning woundedness as a potent method to express Chicanx realities and transform the self from one that is wounded to one that is stitched this book emphasizes the necessity of acknowledgment and ethical restitution for colonial legacies It will be valued by scholars and students interested in the history of rhetorics twentieth century Chicanx art and Latinx studies Risking Difference Jean Wyatt,2012-02-01

Risking Difference revisions the dynamics of multicultural feminist community by exploring the ways that identification creates misrecognitions and misunderstandings between individuals and within communities Drawing on Lacanian psychoanalysis Jean Wyatt argues not only that individual psychic processes of identification influence social dynamics but also that social discourses of race class and culture shape individual identifications In addition to examining fictional narratives by Margaret Atwood Angela Carter Sandra Cisneros Toni Morrison and others Wyatt also looks at nonfictional accounts of cross race relations by white feminists and feminists of color Building Womanist Coalitions Gary Lemons,2019-04-30
