This Luminous Coast Jules Pretty, 2015-06-04 Over the course of a year Jules Pretty walked along the shoreline of East Anglia in southeastern England eventually exploring four hundred miles on foot and another hundred miles by boat It is a coast and a culture that is about to be lost not yet perhaps but soon to rising tides and industrial sprawl This Luminous Coast takes the reader with him on his journey over land and water over sea walls of dried grass beside stretched fields of golden crops alongside white sails gliding across the intricate lacework of invisible creeks and estuaries under vast skies that are home to curlews and redshanks and the outpourings of skylarks East Anglia s coastline is as much a human landscape as it is a natural one and Pretty is equally perceptive about the region s cultural heritage and its industrial wild fishing villages and the modern seaside resorts family farms and oil refineries pleasure piers and concrete seawalls cozy pubs and military installations Through words and photographs Pretty interweaves stories of the land and sea with people past and present He is a passionate and sensitive guide to a region in transition under stress and perhaps even doomed as finely attuned to its history as he is to its unique sensory world

Listening to Landscape Phil Hubbard, 2025-10-16 The first book length exploration of how English landscapes are represented in contemporary electronic and experimental music Listening to Landscape ploughs its own furrow combining ideas from psychogeography hauntology and landscape studies to offer a distinctive take on the way contemporary music deals with the ghosts of an England that is fast disappearing Away from the Top 40 and often circulating in the form of obscure cassette releases and limited vinyl runs acts including Belbury Poly Craven Faults epic45 Gilroy Mere Spaceship Vic Mars Warrington Runcorn New Town Development Plan and many others besides work in experimental genres including folktronica ambient modular synth drone post rock and noise But all have an apparent preoccupation with summoning the essence of place often working with ideas of memory loss and thwarted futurity associated with disappearing or threatened English landscapes Moving deftly between cultural theory musicology and geography Listening to Landscape serves as a primer on the hauntological music scene that appears fixated on questions of landscape and Englishness It argues this music is no mere exercise in nostalgia but a provocation asking us to re imagine England's place in the world at a time of economic and environmental crisis Listening to Landscape speaks to urgent questions of national identity in the post Brexit era offering a distinctive take on the way contemporary culture deals with the ghosts and memories of Albion Includes a foreword by Justin P Hopper author of The Old Weird Albion
