Humility Matters Mary Margaret Funk, 2013 Humility Matters makes the claims that humility is for a disciple of Jesus Christ what enlightenment is for a Buddhist realization for a Hindu surrender for a Muslim and righteousness for a Jew It is the unmistakable character of one who has accepted the vocation to undertake the spiritual journey It is at the core of our experience of life in Christ Meg Funk guides readers deeper into a life of humility by following the movement of what the early Christians called the four renunciations to renounce our former way of life our thoughts of our former way of life our self-made thoughts of God and our self-made thoughts of ourselves With the help of the compelling examples of St Benedict St Teresa of Jesus and St Therese of Lisieux Funk shows the way to ongoing conversion of mind heart and way of life Mary Margaret Funk is a Benedictine nun of Our Lady of Grace Monastery Beech Grove Indiana From 1994 through 2004 she served as executive director of Monastic Interreligious Dialogue which fosters dialogue among monastics of the world's religions In addition to the volumes of the Matters Series she is the author of Islam Is An Experience of Dialogue and Devotion and Into the Depths A Journey of Loss and Vocation

Lectio Matters Mary Margaret Funk, 2013 Lectio divina is a way of praying by sustained immersion into a revelatory text While Scripture is the classic place of encounter with God the text could also be the book of life or the book of nature In Lectio Matters respected spiritual guide Meg Funk accompanies the reader in exploring the various levels of lectio divina as taught by the ancient church writers and by sharing her own long experience By means of this wisdom both ancient and new lectio divina can become our burning bush a real encounter with the living God in which we take off our sandals and bow our brow to the ground

The New Big Book of Christian Mysticism Carl McColman, 2023-08-29 This revised and expanded edition offers a big possibility the hope of achieving real experiential union with God The Christian of the future will be a mystic or will not exist This word of warning from theologian Karl Rahner was uttered half a century ago and today Christianity is indeed in crisis Is mysticism necessary for the survival of Christianity What exactly is Christian mysticism How can it be relevant in our crisis ridden world Questions like these inspire The New Big Book of Christian Mysticism a newly updated edition from beloved spiritual teacher and bestselling author Carl McColman The New Big Book of Christian Mysticism serves as both introduction and practical instruction for a living contemplative practice today In addition to the overview of mysticism spiritual and prayer practices in mysticism the various types of mysticism in Christian tradition and influential mystics through the millennia this second edition offers an embodied understanding of the mystic life with a more diverse range of voices and perspectives from Howard Thurman to Pauli Murray It also includes new chapters and themes that address embodied mysticism contemplation and social justice and the ongoing relevance of Jesus s message of radical equality and inclusivity This bigger book introduces both Christians and non Christians to the contemplative tradition within Christianity a tradition that has often been marginalized or cloistered to the church s detriment As a practice oriented book this is an invitation to embrace the mystical element within Christianity a practice that can equip faithful persons with a joyful sense of divine intimacy not just for personal benefit but as a foundation to a life of service and activism in the interest of justice McColman s overview of mysticism shows how it has been practiced and lived through the centuries and will prove inspirational for today s seekers regardless of their faith tradition At its heart Christian mysticism is an ancient practice that incorporates meditation contemplation worship philosophy the quest for enlightenment the thirst for a better world and the experience of divine presence
