Sufis, Salafis and Islamists Sadek Hamid,2016-03-23

British Muslim activism has evolved constantly in recent decades What have been its main groups and how do their leaders compete to attract followers Which social and religious ideas from abroad are most influential In this groundbreaking study Sadek Hamid traces the evolution of Sufi Salafi and Islamist activist groups in Britain including The Young Muslims UK Hizb ut Tahrir the Salafi JIMAS organisation and Traditional Islam Network With reference to second generation British Muslims especially he explains how these groups gain and lose support embrace and reject foreign ideologies and succeed and fail to provide youth with compelling models of British Muslim identity Analysing historical and firsthand community research Hamid gives a compelling account of the complexity that underlies reductionist media narratives of Islamic activism in Britain

Spiritual Purification in Islam Gavin Picken,2011-03-21 Purification of the soul is a principle that is central to understanding Islamic spirituality but despite this relatively little has been written explicitly in the Islamic tradition regarding this discrete method of spiritual purification This book examines the work of a scholar of this discipline al-Harith al-Muh-sib who lived and worked during the classical Islamic period under the Abb-sids Although al-Muh-sib was well known for his skills in many disciplines including the Qur'an Prophetic narration and scholastic theology it is his mastery in the field of Islamic spirituality and moral psychology for which he is best remembered Assessing the extent to which the political social and economic factors played a part in his life and work Gavin Picken provides a comprehensive overview of his work and its great significance in the development of Islamic spirituality Reconstructing his life in chronological order and providing the most comprehensive appraisal of his works to date it explores a facet of al-Muh-sib's teaching which as yet has not been studied namely his understanding concept and methodology regarding the purification of the soul within the Islamic paradigm As such it will be of great interest not only to researchers and students of

Sufism but also to scholars of comparative spirituality and mysticism Sufism in Britain Ron Geaves, Theodore Gabriel, 2013-11-07 This volume provides an objective analysis of current trends and developments in the beliefs and practices of Sufis in Britain Sufism is a dynamic and substantial presence within British Muslim communities and is influencing both religious and political discourses concerning the formation of Islam in Britain In the 21st century Sufis have re positioned themselves to represent the views of a Traditional Islam a non violent other Islam able to combat the discourses of radical movements Major transformations have taken place in Sufism that illuminate debates over authenticity legitimacy and authority within Islam and religion more generally Through examining the theory and history involved as well as a series of case studies Sufism in Britain charts the processes of change and offers a significant contribution to the political and religious re organisation of the Muslim presence in Britain and the West A Companion to Muslim Ethics Amyn Sajoo, 2012-05-15 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies Socrates famously said that the unexamined life is not worth living In keeping with this dictum taking ethics seriously means engaging with the real world where the human sense of right and wrong is daily tested At their best all faith traditions are challenged by such testing and if faith inspired ethics are thought to govern the whole of life their guiding values need constantly to be interpreted by the believer to achieve a practical result In the Muslim tradition this is what the Qur'an really amounts to a call to strive for belief with a social conscience For fourteen centuries Muslim scholars have grappled with the implications of that call in matters of law social practice and theology And in our own time the quests for civil society and the rule of law have much to do with the response given to these ethical questions A Companion to Muslim Ethics explores Islam's core conception of the good shared with other great traditions Leading experts examine issues such as gender equality nonviolence dispute resolution the environment health and finance The volume will appeal to all those interested in how reason faith and circumstance shape difficult moral choices in an increasingly globalised world A Socially Responsible Islamic Finance Umar F. Moghul, 2017-02-07 This book explores how through spirituality and the development of character Islamic financial institutions and Muslim communities can integrate their businesses with contemporary social responsibility initiatives to produce positive social and environmental impact From the looming environmental crisis to the divide between mainstream and extremist interpretations of Islam the book addresses significant questions facing Muslim communities and humanity and demonstrates why Islam should sit at the table with other faiths and ethical traditions discussing humanity's great obstacles Unlike existing literature this work explores the intersections between classical Islamic ethics and spirituality contemporary Islamic finance and economic markets and select sustainability and impact initiatives such as the Equator Principles and UN Principles of Responsible Investment designed to make the worlds of business and finance responsible for the environments in which they operate and the communities that support them Drawing on his years of experience in Islamic banking Moghul addresses these applications in light of real world practices and dilemmas demonstrating how Islamic organizations and Muslim communities should embrace the broad range of stakeholders countenanced by the Shari'ah in conversations that affect them. By situating his exploration of Islamic finance in the light of the much larger critical issues of balance, justice and moderation in Islamic praxis, Moghul creates an interdisciplinary book that will appeal to academics and researchers in economics, finance, business, government and policy, and law.

The Kashf al-mahjûb: The oldest Persian treatise on Sûfiism

'Ali ibn 'Usman Hujviri, 2021-11-05

In The Kashf al mahj b, Ali ibn Usman Hujviri presents a foundational work of Persian Sufism, intertwining mystical philosophy with practical spiritual guidance. Written in the 11th century, this treatise is notable for its accessible language and structured approach, bridging complex Sufi concepts with the aesthetic sensibilities of the Persian literary tradition. The text offers a comprehensive exploration of Sufi doctrines, practices, and metaphysics, making it a critical resource for understanding the evolution of Islamic mysticism during a time of flourishing philosophical discourse in medieval Persia. Hujviri, also known as Data Ganj Bakhsh, was a prominent Sufi thinker whose own life experiences as a spiritual seeker informed his writing. Living in a vibrant cultural milieu, Hujviri was influenced by Islamic theological debates and diverse mystical traditions, which shaped his understanding of Sufi practices and beliefs. His dedication to elucidating the often esoteric nature of Sufism reflects a broader effort to reconcile Islamic orthodoxy with mystical experience, thus embedding Hujviri within a rich tapestry of spiritual intellectualism. For readers seeking an insightful introduction to Sufism, The Kashf al mahj b is indispensable. Its nuanced examination of the spiritual journey, combined with poetic eloquence, invites both scholars and laypeople to delve deeper into the heart of Islamic mysticism. This work remains a seminal text, influencing countless generations of Sufi thought and practice.

Nur-ul-Huda Kalan \(The Light of Divine Guidance\) Sultan ul Arifeen Hazrat Sakhi Sultan Bahoo, 2019-06-01

Nur ul Huda, The Light of Divine Guidance, is an exceptional work by the great Saint of Subcontinent, Sultan Bahoo, containing grand treasures of mysticism. As the name depicts, it is light of right guidance for all who seek it. Sultan Bahoo himself elaborates the grandeur of the book in these words: "Know that by reading this mystical work based on Divine words, the reader is certainly immersed in the state of annihilation in Allah and reaches the essence of secret of Being." The words of this mystical work speak, and by their efficacy, the reader gains enlightenment, insight, inward purification, spiritual unification, and guidance towards the Divine secrets. No doubt, the discussion in this mystical work instantly takes the seeker to the Divine presence, granting him the Miraj and closeness of Allah that leads to gnosis and Divine observations, and shows him the spectacle of both worlds, making him aware of every state.
