African Studies Centres Around the World Ute Fendler, Doris Löhr, 2022-02-15 The book African Studies Centres Around the World A Network Based Inventory compiles a selection of contributions by the directors of eleven African Studies centres from four continents They comprise Africa's oldest centre on the continent at the University of Cape Town the European centres in Bordeaux Lisbon and Hradec Králové and the two North American Universities of Florida and Indiana Central and South America's contributions to African Studies is represented by the centres in San José Costa Rica Santiago de Cuba and Salvador da Bahia Brazil The Asian centres are located at Jawaharlal University in Mumbai India and at Hankuk University of Foreign Studies in Seoul South Korea The eleven chapters show the very diverse history of the centres explaining their different structures underpinning the need for more exchange and collaborative research The volume presents some aspects of the ongoing critical reflections on the historical and political development of African Studies in various parts of the world disseminating first hand knowledge while the chapters encourage to open the exchange and collaboration across regional disciplinary and academic boundaries With contributions from Akintunde Akinyemi Carlos Almeida Aparajita Biswas Rina Cáceres Yongkyu Chang Marta E Cordes Jackson Ute Fendler John H Hanson Doris Löhr Lungisile Ntsebeza Livio Sansone Jose da Silva Horta Petr Skálník Celine Thiriot

African Studies for the 21st Century Jacob U. Gordon, 2004 African Studies as a field of inquiry has had to combat the insidious interpretations of racist theories used to justify the domination and colonisation of the continent for the past five hundred years While this has not been the complete history of the field it has yielded numerous historians who have either misunderstood or deliberately distorted the idea of African agency Now Jacob Gordon has brought together some of the finest minds in the field to establish the parameters for the future There have been two general movements in the past one hundred years that have reflected the ideas of Africans toward the doctrine of white supremacy in African Studies and other fields Negritude and Afrocentricity Both of these movements have attendant variances and oppositions Nevertheless they may be said to speak to the same problem confronting the African people in a global way and African Studies specifically This book represents an advance in the conceptualisation of African leadership and political direction There have always been models of leadership rooted deeply in the culture responsive to the historical contexts of the people themselves that have been used by African leaders However what the authors in this volume are committed to is the development of ideas and ideals that will lend continuity to the best traditions of the African people

African Studies Newsletter, 1975 African Visions Cheryl Mwaria, Silvia Federici, Joseph McLaren, 2000-08-30 The complexity of African society entering the 21st century necessitates an interdisciplinary examination of Africa's political social and cultural developments and challenges Focusing on Social Movements and Literature Social Change and Culture the book brings together a wide range of essays by committed scholars writers and activists concerned with progressive approaches to Africa's dilemmas Beginning with an overview by anthropologist Cheryl Mwaria African Visions addresses such issues as structural adjustments religious freedom human rights democratization educational movements and health care Particular analyses consider intellectual property student activism and the AIDS epidemic Mwarira Federici and McLaren also explore the way social and cultural questions have been treated in literary works and theoretical studies dealing with hybridity sexual politics literacy socialist orientations and language Noted literary scholars Odun Balogun and Alamin Mazrui consider aspects of these issues The collection also examines trends in literature publishing and theater in such countries as Algeria Niger Nigeria and South Africa in relation to themes such as gender popular culture African novels and protest Highlighting articles by two of Africa's leading activist writers Dennis Brutus of South Africa stressing regional cooperation and Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o of Kenya advocating African languages African Visions avoids the pessimism associated with numerous 20th century studies Brutus and Ngũgĩ consider the economic and cultural effects of globalization and the necessity for promoting self determination An essential resource for all scholars and students concerned with contemporary African life and culture

Voices of the Fugitives Sterling Lecater Bland, 2000-07-30 Situates close analytical readings of individual slave narratives within the larger context of social political cultural and literary conditions influencing the fugitive slave narrative genre

Healing the Exposed Being Robert Thornton, 2017-05-01 This ethnography explores the Nguni healing tradition as practiced in eastern Mpumalanga South Africa Bungoma is an active philosophical system and healing practice consisting of multiple strands based on the notion that humans are intrinsically exposed to each other and that this is the cause of illness but also the condition for the possibility of healing This healing seeks to protect the exposed being from harm through augmenting the self Unlike Western medicine it does not seek to cure physical ailments but aims to prevent suffering by allowing patients to transform their personal narratives of Self Like Western medicine it is empirical and is presented as a local knowledge that amounts to a practical anthropology of human conflict and the environment The book seeks to bring this anthropology and its therapeutic applications into relation with global academic anthropology by explaining it through political economic interpretive and environmental lenses

Mythatypes Alexis Brooks De Vita, 2000-06-30 Dr Alexis Brooks De Vita takes up the challenge to develop culturally relevant modes of literary analysis of African Diaspora literatures by identifying traditional African and Diaspora figures of myth religion legend and history that interact with African and Diaspora literary heroines and their authors Following upon Karla Holloway's arguments in Moorings and Metaphors that African American and West African women share strong traits of storytelling that both isolate and identify their literatures Brooks De Vita traces these traits to their religious legendary and historical sources identifying African and Diaspora female figures of power whose interaction with literary protagonists places personal stories among the collective historical and spiritual African Diaspora experience broadening and deepening each authorial voice by demonstrating how it breaks free of the European perspective of linear time and resonates in a timeless community whose members ceaselessly interact African Diaspora women's symbols of power assert their autonomous definitions of good and evil enabled by decolonialist analysis as expounded by theorists such as Chinweizu Jemie and Madubuike to be separated from universalizing Eurocentric or masculinist assessments Symbols of inherent rootedness and empowerment are clearly identified allowing the reader to perceive tales of salvation and success underlying and further developing literal tales of suffering surrender or loss Will be of particular interest to students scholars and researchers of comparative literature as well as African American literature and African Diaspora and Women s Studies Publications on the History of South African Science Cornelis Plug,1990 Black Americans Information Directory ,1993 Contains over 4700 entries providing contact information on a wide range of non profit private public educational and governmental organizations and agencies concerned with black Americans There are also descriptions of important sources of information educational programmes media and more The Future of Botswana's Elephants P. Hancock,1990 Role Theory in International Relations Sebastian Harnisch,Cornelia Frank,Hanns W Maull,2011-04-06 Role Theory in International Relations provides a comprehensive up to date survey of recent theoretical scholarship on foreign policy roles and extensive empirical analysis of role behaviour of a variety of states in the current era of eroding American hegemony Taking stock of the evolution of role theory within foreign policy analysis international relations and social science theory the authors probe role approaches in combination with IR concepts such as socialization learning and communicative action They draw upon comparative case studies of foreign policy roles of states the United States Japan PR China Germany France UK Poland Sweden and Norway and international institutions NATO EU to assess NATO s transformation the EU as a normative power as well as the impact of China s rise on U S hegemony under the Bush and Obama administrations The chapters also offer compelling theoretical arguments about the nexus between foreign policy role change and the evolution of the international society This important new volume advances current role theory scholarship offering concrete theoretical suggestions of how foreign policy analysis and IR theory could benefit from a closer integration of role theory It will be of great interest to all scholars and students of international relations foreign policy and international politics Imagining the Cape Colony David Johnson,2013-09-19 By returning to a pivotal moment in South African history the Cape Colony in the period 1770 1830 this book addresses current debates about nationalism colonialism and neo colonialism and postcolonial post apartheid culture Pamphlet - South African Biological Society South African Biological Society,1939 Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson,2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Miscast Pippa Skotnes,South African National Gallery,1996 In this book eminent scholars explore the term Bushmen and the relationships that gave rise to it from the perspectives of anthropology archaeology comparative religion literary studies art history and musicology Topics as diverse as trophy heads and museums to the destruction of the Cape San and appraisals of 19th century photographic practices are examined Anthropological Linguistics ,2006 Before Farming ,2002 African Studies Abstracts ,1996 South African Journal of Science ,1993 Trends in African Studies Jacob U. Gordon,Stephen Owoahene-Acheampong,2016 This book Trends in African Studies is a response to the challenge of the paucity of materials on the history and the development of African Studies in a global context The available substantive materials on the subject are limited thus creating a gap in related literature Yet the field of African Studies continues to generate global interest academic recognition and respectability This book documents the current state of African Studies and emerging trends in the field It covers the development of African Studies in a global context African Studies in Africa Asia and the Middle East Europe Australia the United States of America and Canada South America and the Caribbean and it analyzes the trends present in each continent An important contribution of this book to the field of African Studies is the development of an African Studies index designed for measuring the quality of African Studies and ranking Useful information suggested multidisciplinary research methods in African Studies and an appendix which includes a researched list of African Studies journals and organizations related to African Studies are found within its pages

Trends African Studies Jacob Gordon: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Trends African Studies Jacob Gordon : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
