New Names and Forgotten Faces investigates the slow and late inclusion of women in the spheres of knowledge and power in international law. The forty-two textual and visual representations by a diverse team of passionate portraitists represent women and gender non-conforming people in international law from the fourteenth century onwards around the world. Individuals and groups who imagined, developed or contested international law, who earned their living in its institutions or who even indirectly may have changed its course. This rich volume calls for a critical identification of the formal and informal institutional practices, norms and rituals of white masculinities both in the past and in the research of international law today. By abandoning reductive histories, their biased frames and tacit assumptions, this work brings previously unseen glimpses of international law and its agents, ideas, causes, behaviour, norms and social practices into the spotlight.
