Vaderlandse geschiedenis in beeld, 1950 History of the Low Countries J. C. H. Blom, E. Lamberts, 2006-06-01 The history of the smaller European countries is rather neglected in the teaching of European history at university level We are therefore pleased to announce the publication of the first comprehensive history of the Low Countries in English from Roman Times to the present Remaining politically and culturally fragmented with its inhabitants speaking Dutch French Frisian and German the Low Countries offer a fascinating picture of European history en miniature For historical reasons parts of northern France and western Germany also have to be included in the Low Countries a term that must remain both broad and fluid a convenient label for a region which has seldom if ever composed a unified whole In earlier ages it as even more difficult to the region set parameters again reflecting Europe as a whole when tribes and kingdoms stretched across expanses not limited to the present states of Belgium Luxembourg and the Netherlands

Nevertheless its parts did demonstrate many common traits and similar developments that differentiated them from surrounding countries and lent them a distinct character Internationally the region often served both as a mediator for and a buffer to the surrounding great powers France Britain and Germany an important role still played today as Belgium and the Netherlands have increasingly become involved in the broader process of European integration in which they often share the same interest and follow parallel policies This highly illustrated volume serves as an ideal introduction to the rich history of the Low Countries for students and the generally interested reader alike The History of the Jews in the Netherlands Hans Blom,R.G. Fuks-Mansfeld,I. Schöffner,2001-12-01 This acclaimed history of the Jewish role in Dutch society through the ages now available in English considers the internal evolution of the Jewish community as well as the social cultural and economic interaction with the wider population This general survey should appeal to a wide public interested in the history of the Jews of the Netherlands Het Parool Echoing Events Tina van der Vlies,2022-12-12 Echoing Events questions the perpetuation actualization and canonization of national narratives in English and Dutch history textbooks wide reaching media that tendentially inspire a sense of meaning memory and thus also identity The longitudinal study begins in the 1920s when the League of Nations launched several initiatives to reduce strong nationalistic visions in textbooks and ends in the new millennium with the revival of national narratives in both countries The analysis shows how and why textbook authors have narrated different histories which vary in terms of context epoch and place as echoing events by using recurring plots and the same combinations of historical analogies This innovative and original study thus investigates from a new angle the resistance of national narratives to change Nederlandse geschiedkundige schoolwandkaarten Lowie Brink,2014-10-29

Globalisation, Human Rights Education and Reforms Joseph Zajda,Sev Ozdowski,2016-09-23 This book the seventeenth instalment in the 24 volume series Globalisation Comparative Education and Policy Research explores the interrelationship between ideology the state and human rights education reforms setting it in a global context The book examines major human rights education reforms and policy issues in a global culture It focuses on the ambivalent and problematic relationship between the state globalisation and human rights education discourses Using a number of diverse paradigms ranging from critical theory to historical comparative research the authors examine the reasons for and the outcomes of human rights education reforms and policy The authors discuss discourses surrounding the major dimensions affecting the human rights education namely national identity democracy and ideology These dimensions are among the most critical and significant dimensions defining and contextualising the processes surrounding the nation building identity politics and human rights education globally With this as its focus the chapters represent hand picked scholarly research on major discourses in the field of human rights education reforms The book draws upon recent studies in the areas of globalisation equality and the role of the state in human rights education reforms Furthermore the perception of globalisation as dynamic and multi faceted processes clearly necessitates a multiple perspective approach in the study of human rights education This book provides that perspective commendably It also critiques current human rights education practices and policy reforms It illustrates the way shifts in the relationship between the state and human rights education policy In the book the authors who come from diverse backgrounds and regions attempt insightfully to provide a worldview of current developments in research concerning human rights education and citizenship education globally The book contributes in a very scholarly way to a more holistic understanding of the nexus between nation state human rights education both locally and globally The Uses of the Middle Ages in Modern European States R. Evans, G. Marchal, 2010-12-20 An assessment of the role of the Middle Ages in national historiography and in modern conceptions of national identity looking at relatively young nations and regions which claim national traditions but were slow to achieve or regain separate statehood Examples range from Ireland and Iceland through Austria and Italy to Finland and Greece

Conflicts in History Education in Europe Ander Delgado, Andrew Mycock, 2023-07-01 The heightened resonance of identity driven politics in many states across twenty first century Europe emphasizes the critical role of history in shaping public contestation of the idea of the nation and accordant manifestations of nationalism and national identity How the past is interpreted or what and how is remembered has proven increasingly febrile contentious and divisive Debates about history have gone beyond academia and have permeated and polarised politics and society in many European countries Intense debate and dispute about national history and culture has often focused on the history teaching in schools colleges and universities According to the aforementioned it is evident that the teaching of history in the classroom is a relevant topic within the educational system For this reason it is not surprising that many times the choice of what kind of history to teach becomes a controversial topic The existence in a given society of different visions about the nation or the various responses proposed to face the social challenges existing in it immigration independence nationalisms can turn the teaching of history into a debated and controversial topic Logically depending on the specific political context of each country this debate can acquire different developments and characteristics The school is not an institution isolated from its socio political context In fact both areas constantly interact Therefore this book proposes an approach to this topic that tries to connect the specific political context of different countries with the debates about education and history teaching from 1990 until the present It deals with the extent to which the social and political context affects the history teaching practice developed in the classrooms through the decisions made on the official curricula and textbooks Emphasizing this connection between both aspects is one of the strengths of this book That is the reason why this book proposes an approach to that reality from diverse points of view and show the different materializations observed in this area in the studied cases The chapters of this volume allow us to verify this heterogeneous reality and help enrich our knowledge on this broad and interesting topic
