Christianity and Culture Collision Cyril Orji, 2016-08-17 Drawn from the Conference on World Christianity this provocatively titled book invoking images of culture collision particularity and the global South prompts for profoundly new understandings of apparently polar themes inculturation universality and world Christianity Since the emergence of world Christianity is not an epiphenomenon but central to the question of how the gospel is good news for today's world readers concerned about the theological issues related to the possibilities for a genuinely new evangelization will find this volume It will also be of interest to students and scholars of African ecclesiastical history world Christianity and inter religious and inter cultural dialogue Cyril Orji is Associate Professor of theology at the University of Dayton Ohio USA He specializes in systematic and fundamental theology with particular emphasis on the theology and philosophy of Bernard Lonergan whom he brings into conversation with the works of the American pragmatist and semiotician Charles Sanders Peirce Dr Orji also collaborates in inter religious dialogue and the intersection of religion and culture inculturation post colonial critical theory and Black and African theologies and engages in communal practices of communicative theology in the development of local contextual theologies He has published numerous articles in various peer reviewed journals and is the author of A Semiotic Approach to the Theology of Inculturation 2015 An Introduction to Religious and Theological Studies 2015 The Catholic University and the Search for Truth 2013 and Ethnic and Religious Conflicts in Africa An Analysis of Bias and Conversion Based on the Work of Bernard Lonergan 2008

50 Years on David Schultenover, 2015-05 Pope John XXIII prayed that the Second Vatican Council would prove to be a new Pentecost The articles gathered here appeared originally in a series solicited by and published in Theological Studies September 2012 to March 2014 The purpose of the series was and remains threefold To commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Second Vatican Council To help readers more fully appreciate its significance not only for the Catholic Church itself but also for the entire world whom the Church encounters in proclamation and reception of ongoing revelation In their present form to help readers worldwide engage both the conciliar documents themselves and scholarly reflections on them all with a view to appropriating the reform envisioned by Pope John XXIII Contributors Stephen B Bevans SVD Mary C Boys SNJM Maryanne Confoy RSC Massimo Faggioli Anne Hunt Natalia Imperatori Lee Edward Kessler Gerald O Collins SJ John W O Malley SJ Agbonkhianmeghe E Orobator SJ Ladislav Orsy SJ Peter C Phan Gilles Routhier Ormond Rush Stephen Schloesser SJ Francis A Sullivan SJ O Ernesto Valiente Jared Wicks SJ The Quiet Revolution of Pope Francis Gerry O'Hanlon,2021-04-01 In this ground breaking book O Hanlon offers an Irish theology for a Church in crisis carefully crafted in the light of his experience of having travelled the length and breadth of Ireland over the last ten years This is not an armchair theology but one that has been chiselled out of the experience of listening to and learning from others in high and low places engaging with diverse groups attending to the teaching of the Second Vatican Council and heeding the prophetic voice of the Bishop of Rome From the Foreword by Dermot A Lane draws on decades of reflection by himself and by others upon the immense challenges facing the Catholic Church in the post Second Vatican Council period in Ireland and beyond We have lacked neither the vision nor the goodwill to move forward but the institutional and organisational reforms needed to make the Second Vatican Council an embedded reality have eluded us until now Pope Francis the gentle revolutionary has called for a new synodal way of being church Synod means the path which we walk together and it looks like the missing piece of the jigsaw O Hanlon s wise critical but hopeful diagnosis offers the glimpse of a longed for sea change for the Church Michael Kirwan SJ Loyola School of Theology at Trinity College Dublin What We Have Seen and Heard Michael E. Connors,2017-05-11 One of the chief challenges of the Second Vatican Council was to reclaim the meaning of baptism especially as the foundation of service and mission in the world Fifty years after the close of that watershed gathering nineteen distinguished religious leaders and scholars reexamine that challenge and its implications for preaching and ministry today This book reinvigorates an important conversation Vatican II Behind the Iron Curtain Piotr H. Kosicki,2016 The goal of this volume is to begin writing Central and Eastern Europe back into the story of the Second Vatican Council its origins and its consequences This volume assembles for the first time in any language a broad overview of the place of four different Communist run countries Czechoslovakia Hungary Poland and Yugoslavia in the story of the Council Framing these is an account of how the Cold War impacted the Council and its reception The book engages with both English language scholarship and the national historiographies of the countries that it examines offering a global lens on the present state of research covering all relevant languages and seeking to propel that research forward All of the chapters draw on both non English secondary literature and original primary sources some published some archival Catholic Progressives in England after Vatican II Jay P. Corrin,2013-11-30 In Catholic Progressives in England after Vatican II Jay P Corrin traces the evolution of Catholic social and theological thought from the end of World War II through the 1960s that culminated in Vatican Council II He focuses on the emergence of reformist thinking as represented by the Council and the corresponding responses triggered by the Church's failure to expand the promises or expectations of reform to the satisfaction of Catholics on the political left especially in Great Britain. The resistance of the Roman Curia, the clerical hierarchy and many conservative lay men and women to reform was challenged in 1960s England by a cohort of young Catholic intellectuals for whom the Council had not gone far enough to achieve what they believed was the central message of the social gospels namely the creation of a community of humanistic socialism. This effort was spearheaded by members of the English Catholic New Left who launched a path breaking journal of ideas called Slant. What made Slant revolutionary was its success in developing a coherent philosophy of revolution based on a synthesis of the New Theology fueling Vatican II and the New Left's Marxist critique of capitalism. Although the English Catholic New Left failed to meet their revolutionary objectives their bold and imaginative efforts inspired many younger Catholics who had despaired of connecting their faith to contemporary social political and economic issues. Corrin's analysis of the periodical and of such notable contributors as Terry Eagleton and Herbert McCabe explains the importance of Slant and its associated group within the context of twentieth century English Catholic liberal thought and action.

Humanae Vitae, 50 Years Later Theresa Notare, 2019-06-28 In the life of the Catholic Church the papal encyclical Humanae vitae represents a deepening of understanding regarding the nature of married love and the transmission of life. Despite fifty years 1968-2018 since its promulgation many Catholics have yet to discover the treasure of these rich teachings. This volume therefore seeks to elucidate the encyclical's reaffirmation of the divine plan. It does this in a unique way by providing essays from experts of various disciplines that include history theology science medicine law and governmental policy. The occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of Humanae vitae offers a teaching moment. In this compendium experts representing a variety of disciplines including history culture theology medicine law and psychology present their reflections upon God's divine plan as described in Humanae vitae. The authors first presented this work in an abbreviated form at a symposium held at The Catholic University of America April 4-6 2018. Here their presentations are substantively developed and hopefully will encourage further scholarly work. Ultimately their purpose is to help the reader arrive at a more positive understanding of the teachings found in Humanae vitae. Although designed for the educated reader the essays presume that when the teachings of Humanae vitae are embraced by men and women they can contribute to the healing of the wounds of a world broken by sin but redeemed by Christ.

The Trinity and the Religions, Loe Joo Tan, 2018-09-15 Will the followers of other religions who have not heard of the gospel be saved? Since the Second Vatican Council the Catholic church has been grappling with this question culminating in a recent document Dominus Iesus in 2000. In the post-DI climate the British theologian Gavin D Costa has been described as a representative post-DI theologian of religions. And with good reason since other theologians such as Jacques Dupuis whose work along the lines of neo-Rahnerianism have been curtailed by DI. D Costa's work has spanned the past three decades and is aimed at developing a theology that echoes developments within the Catholic church's efforts to grapple with the existence of other religions. In doing so, he has appropriated the doctrine of the Trinity by reasoning it provides the very resources for interacting with Others and developed a form of Trinitarian inclusivism. Based on the work of patristic theologians such as Lewis Ayres and Michel Barnes and their conception of a Pro-Nicene theological matrix, this book is an attempt to assess whether D. Costa's utilization of trinitarian resources for contemporary concerns is faithful to the tradition. The book concludes that while there is much to commend in D. Costa's system, there remain some features not fully consonant with classical Trinitarianism.
