Excerpt from Wagner's Ring of the Nibelung and the Conditions of Ideal Manhood Isab But man proud man Dressed in a little brief authority Most ignorant of what he's most assured His glassy essence like an angry ape Plays such fantastic tricks before high heaven As make the angels weep Aug Why do you put these sayings upon me Isab Because authority though it err like others Hath yet a kind of medicine in itself That skims the vice o the top Go to your bosom Knock there and ask your heart what it doth know That's like my brother's fault A natural guiltiness such as is his Let it not sound a thought upon your tongue Against my brother's life About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
