Thin Places An Evangelical Journey Into Celtic Christianity:

Thin Places Tracy Balzer, 2013-07-29 Thin Places introduces contemporary Christians to the great spiritual legacy of the early Celts a legacy that has remained undiscovered or inaccessible for many evangelical Christians It provides ways for us to learn from this ancient faith expression applying fresh and lively spiritual disciplines to our own modern context Praying in God's Theater Joel L. Watts, 2014-03-10 Much like the book of Revelation Joel L Watts Praying in God's Theater aims to pull readers into a deeper spirituality to confront the daily struggles of Christian life Drawing from the rich well of Christian mystics and theologians from across the ecumenical experience Watts uses the Apocalypse to build a series of prayers and devotions aimed at increasing what he identifies as the contemplative unity and the certain unity between the individual and Christ He urges a radical vision of the prayer and the sacrament of the Eucharist Each chapter of Revelation is considered explored and finally used as a basis to draft prayers Added to this is an application commentary that explores ancient liturgical practices similar to the scenes in Revelation while looking at Revelation in a mystical manner Watts offers Revelation as an early liturgy using this proposition as a catalyst for building prayers and a vision of life based on the Eucharist as the emblem of how we are to approach God What emerges is a profound view on how we envision Scripture prayer and the book of Revelation

Beyond Hashtag Activism Mae Elise Cannon, 2020-05-26 The world is not as God intends it to be But complex problems warrant more attention than quick posts on social media How can we actually make a difference Helping us accomplish change through a range of strategic avenues activist Mae Elise Cannon shows us how to channel our passions to care effectively for our neighbor and the world Seeking Transcendence Joseph C. Manzella, 2025-06-23 Seeking Transcendence examines the various paths taken by those who have detached themselves from their traditional institutional religious roots but are seeking non traditional paths to spiritual experiences Called the nones or non affiliated in popular mass media these include a significant number of Western folks who maintain a belief in God or at least consider themselves spiritual but not religious Each chapter of the book explores these trends with a specific theme as well as a case study based on the author's ethnographic observation of alternative spiritual communities and practices in North America and Western Europe Ultimately this book shows how contemporary alternatives to traditional institutional religion appeal to nones presenting the relevance of new religious movements and more secular spiritual paths to transcendence

Hunter III, 2011-11-01 Celtic Christianity the form of Christian faith that flourished among the people of Ireland during the Middle Ages has gained a great deal of attention lately George G Hunter III points out that while the attention paid to the Celtic Christians is well deserved much of it fails to recognize the true genius of this ancient form of Christianity What many contemporary Christians do not realize is that Celtic Christianity was one of the most successfully evangelistic branches of the church in history The Celtic church converted Ireland from paganism to Christianity in a remarkably short period and then proceeded to send missionaries throughout Europe North America is today in the same situation as the environment in which the early Celtic preachers found their mission fields unfamiliar with the Christian message yet spiritually seeking and open to a vibrant new faith If we are to spread the gospel in this culture of secular seekers we would do well to learn from the Celts Their ability to work with the beliefs of those they evangelized to adapt worship and church life to the indigenous patterns they encountered remains unparalleled in Christian history If we are to succeed in reaching the West again then we must begin by learning from these powerful witnesses to the saving love of Jesus

Christ This classic book on the power of indigenous evangelism has been thoroughly revised and updated proving once again how much these ancient Christians have to teach anyone who seeks to spread the word of the gospel Drawing Close, Encountering Joy Janice E.
