Things That Make No Sense:

Things That Make No Sense Kenneth Meeks, 2010-08-31 Things That Make No Sense deals with everyday occurrences experienced by everyone as they go about their daily lives. Some things just don't make any sense at all. Many of the stories included here deal with common events such as unresponsive or poor customer service which is becoming all too frequent these days. Some of these instances can probably be characterized as funny, some as unbelievable, and others as simply irrational. Sometimes the only appropriate reaction to one of these annoying events is disgust. Things That Make No Sense is an entertaining and amusing collection of sixty of the most ridiculous of these actions and decisions that author Kenneth W. Meeks has observed. No doubt everyone has had experiences similar to those recounted here, or even more unbelievable than the ones included in the book. Prepare to be sympathetically irked, incredibly entertained, and ridiculously amused. Ocean of Reasoning Tsongkhapa, 2006-04-20 Tsongkhapa, 14th century is arguably the most important and influential philosopher in Tibetan history. An Ocean of Reasoning is the most extensive and perhaps the deepest extant commentary on Nagarjuna's Mulamadhyamakakarika, Fundamental Wisdom of the Middle Way, and it can be argued that it is impossible to discuss Nagarjuna's work in an informed way without consulting it. It discusses alternative readings of the text and prior commentaries and provides a detailed exegesis constituting a systematic presentation of Madhyamaka Buddhist philosophy. Despite its central importance, however, of Tsongkhapa's three most important texts, only An Ocean of Reasoning remains untranslated, perhaps because it is both philosophically and linguistically challenging, demanding a rare combination of abilities on the part of a translator. Jay Garfield and Ngawang Samten bring the requisite skills to this difficult task, combining between them expertise in Western and Indian philosophy and fluency in Tibetan, Sanskrit, and English. The resulting translation of this important text will not only be a landmark contribution to the scholarship of Indian and Tibetan Buddhism but will serve as a valuable companion volume to Jay Garfield's highly successful translation of The Fundamental Wisdom of the Middle Way. Time and Identity Joseph Keim Campbell, Michael O'Rourke, Harry S. Silverstein, 2010-05-28 Original essays on the metaphysics of time, identity, and the self, written by distinguished scholars and important rising philosophers. The concepts of time and identity seem at once unproblematic and frustratingly difficult. Time is an intricate part of our experience; it would seem that the passage of time is a prerequisite for having any experience at all, and yet recalcitrant questions about time remain: Is time real? Does time flow? Do past and future moments exist? Philosophers face similarly stubborn questions about identity, particularly about the persistence of identical entities through change. Indeed, questions about the metaphysics of persistence take on many of the complexities inherent in philosophical considerations of time. This volume of original essays brings together these two essentially related concepts in a way not reflected in the available literature, making it required reading for philosophers working in metaphysics and students interested in these topics. The contributors, distinguished authors and rising scholars, first consider the nature of time and then turn to the relation of identity focusing on the metaphysical connections between the two with a special emphasis on personal identity The volume concludes with essays on the metaphysics of death issues in which time and identity play a significant role This groundbreaking collection offers both cutting edge epistemological analysis and historical perspectives on contemporary topics Contributors Harriet Baber Lynne Rudder Baker Ben Bradley John W Carroll Reinaldo Elugardo Geoffrey Gorham Mark Hinchliff Jenann Ismael Barbara Levenbook Andrew Light Lawrence B Lombard Ned Markosian Harold Noonan John Perry Harry S Silverstein Matthew H Slater Robert J Stainton Neil A Tognazzini Understanding Misunderstandings Robert L.
