Thinking Small The United States And The Lure Of Community Development:

Thinking Small Daniel Immerwahr, 2015-01-05 Daniel Immerwahr tells how the United States sought to rescue the world from poverty through small scale community based approaches He also sounds a warning such strategies now again in vogue have been tried before alongside grander modernization schemes with often disastrous consequences as self help gave way to crushing local oppression

Hearts, Minds, Voices Jason C. Parker, 2016-09-01 For over four decades the Cold War superpowers endeavored mightily to win hearts and minds abroad through public diplomacy Hearts Minds Voices explores how the non European world responded to this media war by joining it rejecting the Cold War in favor of forging an imagined community grounded in nonalignment economic development and racialized solidarity the Third World

Moved by the State Tina Loo, 2019-06-01 Why don't they just move This reductive question is asked whenever reports surface of the all too common lack of social services and economic opportunities in Canada's rural and urban communities But why are certain people and places vulnerable And who is responsible for a remedy From the 1950s to the 1970s the Canadian government relocated people often against their will in order to improve their lives Moved by the State offers a completely new interpretation of this undertaking seeing it as part of a larger project of development and focusing on the bureaucrats and academics who designed implemented and monitored the relocations rather than on those who were uprooted In this finely crafted history Tina Loo explores the contradiction between intention and consequence as diverse communities across Canada were resettled In the process she reveals the optimistic belief underpinning postwar relocations the power of the interventionist state to do good

The Myth of the Community Fix Sarah D. Cate, 2023 A detailed examination of the limitations and pitfalls of pursuing the community based reform movement in the American criminal justice system As the extent of America's mass incarceration crisis has come into sharper view politicians activists and non profit foundations from across the political spectrum have united around community based reforms Many states are pursuing criminal justice reforms that aim to move youth out of state run prisons and into community based alternatives as a way of improving the lives of youth caught in the juvenile justice system In The Myth of the Community Fix Sarah D Cate demonstrates that rather than a panacea community based juvenile justice reforms have resulted in a dangerous constellation of privatized institutions with little oversight Focusing on case studies of three leading states for this model of reform Texas California and Pennsylvania Cate provides a comprehensive look at the alarming on the ground consequences of the turn towards community in an era of austerity Although often portrayed as a break with past practices this book documents how community based reforms are the latest in a long line of policy prescriptions that further individualize the problem of delinquency bolster punitiveness and reduce democratic accountability Through contextualizing the community based reform movement as part of the broader shift away from the centralized provision of public goods in the United States Cate shows why those committed to addressing the problems of mass incarceration should be wary of the community fix the Mixed Economy Amy C. Offner, 2021-06-08 The untold story of how U S development efforts in postwar Latin America helped lead to the dismantling of the U S welfare state In this groundbreaking book Amy Offner brings readers to Colombia and back showing the entanglement of American societies and the contradictory promises of midcentury statebuilding The untold story of how the road from the New Deal to the Great Society ran through Latin America Sorting Out the Mixed Economy also offers a surprising new account of the origins of neoliberalism The Converging Technology Revolution and Human Capital Sajitha Bashir, Carl Dahlman, Naoto Kanehira, Klaus Tilmes, 2021-10-08 South Asia is heavily impacted by the devastating loss of lives and human capital from the COVID 19 pandemic and the converging technology revolution sweeping the globe The Converging Technology Revolution and Human Capital Potential and Implications for South Asia looks at how the region could capitalize on these technologies to accelerate its development of human capital and promote adaptability and resilience to future shocks The convergence of technological breakthroughs spanning biotechnology nanotechnology information technology and cognitive science is driven by artificial intelligence data flows computing power and connectivity These breakthroughs can improve service delivery productivity and innovation but they can also exacerbate inequalities and eliminate people s agency and empowerment This report analyzes these trends in the region offering a comprehensive agenda to exploit the opportunities offered by converging technologies while minimizing the risks to vulnerable populations It proposes strategies for building public sector capacity and promoting data and technology governance frameworks in a rapidly evolving technology landscape All Health Politics Is Local Merlin

Sorting Out

Chowkwanyun, 2022-05-09 Health is political It entails fierce battles over the allocation of resources arguments over the imposition of regulations and the mediation of dueling public sentiments all conflicts that are often narrated from a national top down view In All Health Politics Is Local Merlin Chowkwanyun shifts our focus taking us to four very different places New York City Los Angeles Cleveland and Central Appalachia to experience a national story through a regional lens He shows how racial uprisings in the 1960s catalyzed the creation of new medical infrastructure for those long denied it what local authorities did to curb air pollution so toxic that it made residents choke and cry how community health activists and bureaucrats fought over who d control facilities long run by insular elites and what a national coal boom did to community ecology and health All Health Politics Is Local shatters the notion of a single national health agenda Health is and has always been political shaped both by formal policy at the highest levels and by grassroots community battles far below The Poverty of the World Sheyda F. A. Jahanbani, 2023 Bringing together foreign and domestic policy The Poverty of the World aims to offer a new answer to the question of why Americans became obsessed with poverty in the 1960s A history of how American liberals made sense of US power during a period of unprecedented affluence at home it uses intellectual and political biographies of major figures in postwar US social thought and politics to tell the story of how Americans invented the problem of global poverty and executed a war against it Cold War Democracy Jennifer M. Miller, 2019-04-01 During the occupation American policymakers identified elections and education as the wellsprings of a democratic consciousness in Japan But as the extent of Japan s economic recovery became clear they placed prosperity at the core of a revised vision for their new ally s future as Jennifer Miller shows in this fresh appraisal of the Cold War The Struggle for the Long-Term in Transnational Science and Politics Jenny Andersson,Eglė Rindzevičiūtė,2015-04-10 This book reconsiders the power of the idea of the future Bringing together perspectives from cultural history environmental history political history and the history of science it investigates how the future became a specific field of action in liberal democratic state socialist and post colonial regimes after the Second World War It highlights the emergence of new forms of predictive scientific expertise in this period and shows how such forms of expertise interacted with political systems of the Cold War world order as the future became the prism for dealing with post industrialisation technoscientific progress changing social values Cold War tensions and an emerging Third World A forgotten problem of cultural history the future re emerges in this volume as a fundamentally contested field in which forms of control and central forms of resistance met as different actors set out to colonise and control and others to liberate The individual studies of this book show how the West European African Romanian and Czechoslovak long term was constructed through forms of expertise computer simulations and models and they reveal how such constructions both opened up new realities but also imposed limits on possible futures A Companion to U.S. Foreign Relations Christopher R. Stewart,2017-03-24 Vietnam s Lost Revolution employs newly released archival material from Vietnam to examine the rise and fall of the Special Commissariat for Civic Action in the First Republic of Vietnam and in so doing reassesses the origins of the Vietnam War A cornerstone of Ng nh Di m s presidency Civic Action was intended to transform Vietnam into a thriving modern independent noncommunist Southeast Asian nation Geoffrey Stewart juxtaposes Diem s revolutionary plan with the conflicting and competing visions of Vietnam s postcolonial future held by other indigenous groups He shows how the government failed to gain legitimacy within the peasantry ceding the advantage to the communist led opposition and paving the way for the American military intervention in the mid 1960s This book provides a richer and more nuanced analysis of the origins of the Vietnam War in which internal struggles over national identity self determination and even modernity itself are central The Postwar Origins of the Global Environment Perrin Selcer,2018-09-25 In the wake of the Second World War internationalists identified science as both the cause of and the solution to world crisis Unless civilization learned to control the unprecedented powers science had unleashed global catastrophe was imminent But the internationalists found hope in the idea of world government In The Postwar Origins of the Global Environment Perrin Selcer argues that the metaphor of Spaceship Earth the idea of the planet as a single interconnected system exemplifies this moment when a mix of anxiety and hope inspired visions of world community and the proliferation of international institutions Selcer tells the story of how the United Nations built the international knowledge infrastructure that made the global scale environment visible Experts affiliated with UN agencies helped make the global as in global population global climate and global economy an object in need of governance Selcer traces how UN programs such as UNESCO s Arid Lands Project the production of a soil map of the world and plans for a global environmental monitoring system fell short of utopian ambitions to cultivate world citizens but did produce an international community of experts with influential connections to national governments He shows how events and personalities cultures and ecologies bureaucracies and ideologies decolonization and the Cold War interacted to make global knowledge A major contribution to global history environmental history and the history of development this book relocates the origins of planetary environmentalism in the postwar politics of scale Education and Modernity in Colonial

Punjab Michael Philipp Brunner, 2020-11-23 This book explores the localisation of modernity in late colonial India As a case study it focuses on the hitherto untold colonial history of Khalsa College Amritsar a pioneering and highly influential educational institution founded in the British Indian province of Punjab in 1892 by the religious minority community of the Sikhs Addressing topics such as politics religion rural development militarism or physical education the study shows how Sikh educationalists and activists made use of and localised communal imperial national and transnational discourses and knowledge Their modernist visions and schemes transcended both imperialist and mainstream nationalist frameworks and networks In its quest to educate the modern Sikh scientific practical disciplined and physically fit the college navigated between very local and global claims opportunities and contingencies mirroring modernity's ambivalent simultaneity of universalism and particularism

The Business of Marketing, Entrepreneurship, and Architecture of Communal Societies in the 1960s and 1970s Rahima Schwenkbeck, 2021-11-13 This book provides an in depth history of three US based communal societies that operated in the late 1960s and 1970s Soul City Stelle and Twin Oaks with an emphasis on their financing marketing and entrepreneurship processes These communities reflect the diversity of people who were dissatisfied with the direction in which American society was heading often underpinned by concerns over racism sexism the environment and capitalism and decided to take the radical step of joining a communal society A moral economy approach offers a lens on how these communities were prevented from fully realizing their visions due to the confines of capitalism as embedded in banking practices zoning laws and systemic racism

Agrarian Crossings Tore C. Olsson, 2017-08-02 In the 1930s and 1940s rural reformers in the United States and Mexico waged unprecedented campaigns to remake their countrysides in the name of agrarian justice and agricultural productivity Agrarian Crossings tells the story of how these campaigns were conducted in dialogue with one another as reformers in each nation came to exchange models plans and strategies with their equivalents across the border Dismantling the artificial boundaries that can divide American and Latin American history Tore Olsson shows how the agrarian histories of both regions share far more than we realize He traces the connections between the US South and the plantation zones of Mexico places that suffered parallel problems of environmental decline rural poverty and gross inequities in land tenure Bringing this tumultuous era vividly to life he describes how Roosevelt's New Deal drew on Mexican revolutionary agrarianism to shape its program for the rural South Olsson also looks at how the US South served as the domestic laboratory for the Rockefeller Foundation's green revolution in Mexico which would become the most important Third World development campaign of the twentieth century and how the Mexican government attempted to replicate the hydraulic development of the Tennessee Valley Authority after World War II Rather than a comparative history Agrarian Crossings is an innovative history of comparisons and the ways they affected policy moved people and reshaped the landscape

Globalizing the U.S. Presidency Cyrus Schayegh, 2020-01-09 Using John F Kennedy as a central figure and reference point this volume explores how postcolonial citizens viewed the US president when peak decolonization met the Cold War Exploring how their appropriations blended with their own domestic and regional realities the chapters span sources cases and languages from Latin America Africa Asia and Europe to explore the history of US and third world relations in a way that pushes beyond US centric themes Examining a range of actors Globalizing the U S Presidency studies various political sociocultural and economic domestic and regional contexts during the Cold War era and explores themes such as appropriation antagonism and contestation within decolonisation Attempting to both de americanize and globalize John F Kennedy and the US Presidency the chapters examine how the perceptions of the president were fed by everyday experiences of national and international postcolonial lives The many examples of worldwide interest in the US president at this time illustrate that this time was a historical turning point for the role of the US on the global stage The hopes and fears of peaking decolonization the resulting pressure on Washington Moscow and other powers and a new mediascape together ushered in a more comprehensive globalization of international politics and a new meaning to the United States in the world

Building the Population Bomb Emily Klancher Merchant, 2021 Building the Population Bomb carefully examines how the rise of the world s human population came to be understood as problematic by scientists and governments across the globe It challenges our assumption of population growth as inherently problematic by demonstrating how it is our anxieties over population growth and not population growth itself that have detracted from the pursuit of economic environmental and reproductive justice

The Oxford Handbook of Late Colonial Insurgencies and Counter-Insurgencies Martin Thomas, Gareth Curless, 2023-10-10 The lethality of conflicts between insurgent groups and counter insurgent security forces has risen markedly since the Second World War just as those of conventional or inter state wars have declined For several decades conflicts within states rather than between them have been the prevalent form of organised political violence worldwide Recent conflicts in Afghanistan Iraq and Syria have fired interest in colonial experiences of rebellion while current western interventions in sub Saharan Africa have prompted accusations of militarist humanitarianism Yet despite mounting interest in counter insurgency and empire comparative investigation of colonial responses to insurrection and civil disorder is sparse Some scholars have written of a golden age of counter insurgency which began with Britain s declaration of a Malayan Emergency in 1948 and ended with the withdrawal of US ground troops from Vietnam in 1973 It is with this period if not with any presumed golden age that this volume is concerned This Handbook connects ideas about contested decolonization and the insurgencies that inspired it with an analysis of patterns and singularities in the conflicts that precipitated the collapse of overseas empires It attempts a systematic study of the global effects of organized anti colonial violence in Asia and Africa The objective is to reconceptualize late colonial violence in the European overseas empires by exploring its distinctive character and the globalizing processes underpinning it
