School Gun Violence in YA Literature Laura A. Brown, 2022-05-09 Since Columbine the topic of school shootings has become ever more prevalent in the media in research and in fiction This book provides analyses of several Young Adult YA texts about school shootings and uncovers how the authors represent such violence and those who perpetrate it while developing stories that effectively speak to their adolescent readers Employing Bronfenbrenner's Ecological Systems Theory Laura A Brown examines how the texts frame particular settings and events as important to the development of young people as a way of accounting for the shootings Likewise psychologist Peter Langman's classification of the three populations of school shooters is utilized as a framework to analyze the characterization of fictional shooters in the texts The author argues that these texts while not easy to read are important as they problematize the ways we think about approach and react to school shootings and the students who commit such acts

The Fictional Dimension of the School Shooting Discourse Silke Braselmann, 2019-06-17 Ever since the 1990s school shootings have shocked the public in their brutality their suddenness and their inexplicability While film and literature have played a role in the heated debates about so called copycat crimes the growing body of fictionalizations of school shootings has been neglected thus far However in a discourse in which the boundaries between fiction and reality are increasingly blurred this book shows how fiction shapes and structures challenges and disrupts cultural processes of meaning making Hence for a better understanding of the school shooting phenomenon the relevance of fiction on all levels of discourse construction requires thorough analysis This book therefore develops a new approach to the role of fiction for contemporary forms of excessive violence By combining narrative theory with insights from sociology and other disciplines it provides the means for apprehending and describing the relevance of fiction for contemporary discourses Furthermore it provides exemplary analyses of more specific functions of literary and filmic fictionalizations of school shootings between 2000 and 2016
