Wright,Richard D. Wright,1994-07-01 Building on the principles and practices presented in The Divining Mind Richard Wright's first book on dowsing coauthored by T Edward Ross II authors Richard and Pat Wright define dowsing as the process of uncovering information through the medium of the self The Wrights believe as do many dowsers that the ability to dowse is innate but they also feel that its proper development is contingent upon the parallel unfoldment of the spiritual qualities in our nature Through this process the dowser becomes increasingly cognizant of the interconnectedness of all aspects of life and begins to play his or her part as an agent of healing and positive change Includes detailed information on Responsibility in dowsing Practical dowsing Earth energies Planetary stewardship Healing and prayer The supersensory worlds An indispensable guide for the advanced dowser as well as a beginner's sourcebook Translating Rumi into the West Amir Sedaghat,2023-02-28 Focusing on Rumi the best selling Persian mystical poet of the 13th century this book investigates the reception of his work and thought in North America and Europe and the phenomenon of Rumimania to elucidate the complexities of intercultural communication between the West and the Iranian and Islamic worlds Presenting tens of examples from the original and translated texts the book is a critical analysis of various dimensions of this reception outlining the difficulties of translating the text but also exploring how translators of various times and languages have performed and explaining why the quality of reception varies Topics analysed include the linguistic and pragmatic issues of translation comparative stylistics and poetics and non textual factors like the translator's beliefs and the political and ideological aspects of translation Using a broad theoretical framework the author highlights the difficulties of intercultural communication from linguistic semiotic stylistic poetic ethical and sociocultural perspectives Ultimately the author shares his reflections on the semiotic specificities of Rumi's mystical discourse and the ethics of translation generally The book will be valuable to scholars and students of Islamic philosophy Iranian studies and translation studies but will appeal to anyone interested in the cultural dichotomies of the West and Islam Sufism Deepshikha Shahi, 2020-06-22 In an effort to attain a global character the contemporary academic discipline of International Relations IR increasingly seeks to surpass its Eurocentric limits thereby opening up pathways to incorporate non Eurocentric worldviews Lately many of the non Eurocentric worldviews have emerged which either engender a derivative discourse of the same Eurocentric IR theories or construct an exceptionalist discourse which is particularly applicable to the narrow experiential realities of a native time space zone as such they fall short of the ambition to produce a genuinely non derivative and non exceptionalist Global IR theory Against this backdrop Sufism A Theoretical Intervention in Global International Relations performs a multidisciplinary research to explore how Sufism as an established non Western philosophy with a remarkable temporal spatial spread across the globe facilitates a creative intervention in the theoretical understanding of Global IR A Heart of Wisdom Maurice Friedman, 2012-02-01 Drawing on almost half a century of immersion in the world's great religions coupled with an ever deepening understanding of the philosophy and phenomenology of religion the author takes a dialogical approach through which religious reality is not seen as external creed and form or as subjective inspiration but as the meeting in openness presentness immediacy and mutuality with ultimate reality Religion has to do with the wholeness of human life The absolute is found not just in the universal but in the particular and the unique When it promotes a dualism in which the spirit has no binding claim upon life and life falls apart into unhallowed fragments religion becomes the great enemy of humankind
