Jeffrey, 2012-05-30 Continuing in the same vein as book 1, this book features a collection of short fictional stories dealing with experiences that children and young adults might go through while taking the reader on journeys to imaginary places and times. You will find stories that teach life lessons about right and wrong, as well as fictional mystery stories that will keep young minds guessing. The stories in this book will make you think as well. Some are deeply touching and talk about relationships between people, between people and animals, and even a story or two about relationships between animal and animal. There probably has been no other book like this, but if there has, there should even be more.
