Three Screenplays By Edward Burns:

Three Screenplays by Edward Burns Edward Burns, 1997 Award winning filmmaker Edward Burns is hardly an overnight success story For four years Burns wrote his own screenplays while he made a meager living working as a production assistant for a television show in New York City Then on an extremely low budget and shot mostly in his parents Long Island home Burns wrote produced directed and starred in his brilliant first film The Brothers McMullen about three Irish American brothers coping with life and love in the 1990s The film won the Grand Jury Prize at the 1995 Sundance Film Festival and Burns' career took off bolstered the next year by the instant success of his second romantic comedy She's the One Now to coincide with the release of his biggest film yet No Looking Back Burns presents a complete collection of his three screenplays along with numerous photo stills and an original autobiographical Introduction The Hollywood

Project Alex Field, 2004 Featuring candid conversations with screenwriters directors and producers who make films that explore spiritual themes and ask probing spiritual questions this book provides an exclusive look into the motivation behind the themes contained in their art Five Screenplays Norman Stokle, 2015-04-07 These screenplays cover a wide range of topics the struggle for cultural survival The Siege of Saint Michel the nature of our afterlife Limited Options the importance of friendship Buskers pursuing a passion that also pays the bills The Starlet the death of chivalry The Battle of Crecy The first is a full feature movie the others shorter works for television Their purpose is to entertain while encouraging the observer to reflect upon the broader issues of life Always the accent is on colorful characters grappling with highly conflictual and at times hilarious situations within a tight dramatic framework and intelligent verbal exchange Irish America Maureen

Dezell, 2002-03-05 Old time politics piety and St Patrick's Day parades loom large when the Irish come to the American mind None truly represents the complex legacy or contributions of the nation's oldest ethnic group who rank among the most highly educated and affluent Americans today In Irish America Maureen Dezell takes a new and invigorating look at Americans of Irish Catholic ancestry who they are and how they got that way A welcome antidote to so many standard issue sentimental representations of the Irish in the United States Irish America focuses on popular culture as well as politics the Irish in the Midwest and West as well as the East the new Irish immigrants the complicated role of the Church today and the unheralded heritage of Irish American women Deftly weaving history reporting and the observations of more than 100 men and women of Irish descent on both sides of the Atlantic Dezell presents an insightful and highly readable portrait of a people and a culture 3 Screenplays Ready for a Producer Daniel Beaumont, 2006-09 3 Screenplays Ready For A Producer is a unique storytelling device that allows the reader to read a typical screenplay and still be entertained by a compelling story Or three stories in this case The first entry Finkelstein is a laugh a minute prequel to the ever popular Frankenstein story It tells of the rivalry between Dr Victor Frankenstein and his first cousin Dr Herbert Finkelstein It has a raft of lively characters that maintain a non stop pace throughout Your Face Or Mine is a new version of the familiar ringer theme A man's humdrum life is turned topsy turvy when he discovers a millionaire who looks exactly like he does Taking the millionaire's place is not as difficult as is solving the many unexpected twists and turns that he faces in his new life Some Assembly Required is a farcical comedy that deals with the problems facing a group of the nation's armament makers when government budget cuts force them to conduct their war games with model planes and guns A Dr Strangelove aura pervades the story which is filled with a raft of off the wall characters This book is delightfully good reading whether you're a film producer looking for a new project or just someone looking for some good reading Screen plays Amanda Wrigley, John Wyver, 2022-04-05

Screen plays is a ground breaking collection that chronicles the rich and surprising history of stage plays produced for the small screen between 1930 and the present The volume opens with a substantial historical outline of how plays originally written for the theatre have been presented by the BBC and ITV as well as independent producers and cultural organisations Subsequent chapters utilise a variety of critical methodologies to analyse a wide range of outside broadcasts from theatres screen adaptations of existing stage productions along with original television productions of classic and contemporary drama Making a compelling case for the centrality of the theatre to British television's past and present Screen plays opens up new areas of research for all those engaged in theatre media and adaptation studies Independent Ed Edward

Burns, Todd Gold, 2015-11-10 In Independent Ed Edward Burns shares the story of his two remarkable decades in the film industry At the age of 25 Burns produced his first film The Brothers McMullen 1995 on a tiny budget It went on to win the Grand Jury Prize at the Sundance Film Festival in 1995 Since then aspiring film makers have sought his advice This entertaining and inspirational memoir tells readers how he managed to secure financing and how he found stars on the way up as well as sharing his work methods A must read for movie fans film students and everyone who loves a gripping tale

King, 2022-05-16 Breaking down the traditional structures of screenplays in an innovative and progressive way while also investigating the ways in which screenplays have been traditionally told this book interrogates how screenplays can be written to reflect the diverse life experiences of real people Author Jess King explores how existing paradigms of screenplays often exclude the very people watching films and TV today Taking aspects such as characterization screenplay structure and world building King offers ways to ensure your screenplays are inclusive and allow for every person s story to be heard In addition to examples ranging from Sorry to Bother You to Portrait of a Lady on Fire four case studies on Killing Eve Sense8 I May Destroy You and Vida ground the theoretical work in practical application The book highlights the ways in which screenplays can authentically represent and uplift the lived experiences of those so often left out of the narrative such as the LGBTQIA community women and people of color The book addresses a current demand for more inclusive and progressive representation in film and TV and equips screenwriters with the tools to ensure their screenplays tell authentic stories offering innovative ways to reimagine current screenwriting practice towards radical equity and inclusion This is a timely and necessary book that brings the critical lenses of gender studies queer theory and critical race studies to bear on the practice of screenwriting ideal for students of screenwriting aspiring screenwriters and industry professionals alike

Springsteen as Soundtrack Caroline Madden,2020-01-31 A catalog nearly fifty years in the making Bruce Springsteen s music remains popular and a frequent subject of study yet little critical attention has been given to its inclusion in film and television This book examines a selection of films and TV shows from the 1980s to the present including Mask High Fidelity The Sopranos and The Wrestler that feature Springsteen s music on the soundtrack Relating his thematic preoccupations with religion the Vietnam War the promise of the open road economic disparity and blue collar malaise his songs color narrative and articulate the inner lives of characters This book explores the many on screen contexts of Springsteen s work from Greetings from Asbury Park N J to Springsteen on Broadway
