The Empathic God Frank Woggon,2024-05-07 What if Jesus did not come to die for our sins What if instead Jesus s life and death was intended to provide a way out of our shame While traditional Christian teachings about the atonement emphasize sin as guilt and transgression against God s will and commandments Frank Woggon points out that clinical spiritual care reveals that the human condition is predominantly marked by shame rather than guilt In The Empathic God Woggon examines myopic readings of the Jesus event that in turn have embedded distortions into traditional paradigms of the atonement In contrast Woggon mines narratives of the human condition to engage in a critical examination of the Jesus story As a clinician and ordained Baptist minister Woggon presents the Jesus event as God s empathic initiative toward humanity and convincingly argues that salvation comes through empathy rather than forgiveness Woggon s work constructs a clinical theology of at onement from the perspective of clinical spiritual care The Empathic God calls for a practical response of caring participation in God s ongoing work of salvation through an empathic praxis of spiritual care Most importantly The Empathic God takes seriously that lived human experience is the starting point for theological exploration rather than doctrine This book will help practitioners and students of spiritual care in the Christian tradition to reflect more critically on the intersection of spiritual care practice and theology The book also will challenge pastors ministers of pastoral care chaplains pastoral counselors spiritually oriented therapists to interrogate and re interpret traumatic shame filled Christian teachings about the atonement so that they too can join in God s ongoing and liberating work of salvation Somatic Methods for Affect Regulation Kimberley L. different counselors I was diagnosed with PTSD The diagnosis was great at least now I had a name for the beast in my head but I was still not feeling the peace I was desperately seeking So I began my quest to heal from PTSD on my own so I could get control over my mind and emotions and create a new life for myself my life after trauma I know from personal experience that trauma can destroy everything you value It can leave you broke mentally financially and spiritually It destroys friendships and relationships The very things you once placed so much value on no longer matter After years of studying trauma and PTSD I began to coach other trauma survivors and I discovered that we all seem to have a common theme in the way our brains and bodies react when they try to process the trauma and damage that has taken place I made a promise to myself that when I had healed from trauma that I would help others heal from their traumas so I created a simple step by step guide in the pages of this short book called The Trauma Survivor's Guide To Healing The Trauma Recovery Group Michaela Mendelsohn, Judith Lewis Herman, Emily Schatzow, Melissa Coco, Diya Kallivayalil, Jocelyn Levitan, 2011-06-14 Rich with expert practical guidance for therapists this book presents a time limited group treatment approach for survivors of interpersonal trauma The Trauma Recovery Group is a Stage 2 approach within Judith Herman's influential stage model of treatment It is designed for clients who have achieved basic safety and stability in present day life and who are ready to work on processing and integrating traumatic memories Vivid case examples and transcripts illustrate the process of screening selecting and orienting group members and helping them craft and work toward individualized goals while optimizing the healing power of group interactions In a convenient large size format the book includes reproducible handouts worksheets and flyers See also Group Trauma Treatment in Early Recovery by Judith Lewis Herman and Diya Kallivayalil which presents a Stage 1 approach that focuses on establishing safety stability and self care Post-Traumatic Stress Derailment Afrah Caraballo MSW, LCSW, 2014-07-08 No matter where trauma comes from it's always violent It breaks hearts and shatters shields regardless if it's caused by an earthquake fire flood hurricane abuse a car crash murder or something else Those who suffer from trauma often wonder if there's something wrong with them Afrah Caraballo a licensed clinical social worker specializing in mental and emotional trauma wants those who suffer to know that there are logical explanations for their feelings and behaviors She helps caregivers and victims of trauma Identify the cause of the problem Validate loss and begin the healing process Overcome the sense of guilt and shame that hold many hostage You'll also discover how to recognize the symptoms of post traumatic stress disorder and get details on how trauma affects different age groups Regardless if you're a clinical social worker victim of trauma or caregiver to someone who is suffering you'll find this guide an invaluable tool to helping yourself and others Trauma Practice Anna B.
