

The Treaty of Versailles was a peace document signed between Imperial Germany and the Allied Powers on 28th June 1919. The treaty ended the state of war that had existed between Germany and the Allies from 1914 and brought World War I to an end.

The treaty gets its name from the Palace of Versailles where it was signed

Background of the Treaty of Versailles

World War I had broken out in July 1914 upon the assassination of Archduke Ferdinand, the heir to the throne of the Austro-Hungarian Empire. The resulting conflict had pitted Britain, France, Russia along with their colonies, against the Austro-Hungarian Empire, Ottoman Empire and the German Empire.

The war had been fought into a stalemate by 1918, but the Central Powers (the term with which the Ottomans, Austro-Hungarian and German factions were known by) were planning an offensive with the entry of the United States into the war against them. Seeking to swiftly put the conflict to an end before American troops landed in Europe, Germany took the initiative to begin an offensive that would end the war in the Central Powers favour.

In a speech to the United States Congress in January 1918, President Woodrow Wilson laid out his vision for an idealistic post-war European society. They were known as the Fourteen Points. The Fourteen Points laid the groundwork for self-determination for Europe's ethnic population and the groundwork for a multinational organization that would mediate any future disputes and prevent large-scale conflicts. The organization became known as the League of Nations (it would be dissolved).

A brief summary of the Fourteen Points are given below:

1. There would be no secret treaties between two warring nations. Diplomacy between them would be a matter of public record
2. The free navigations of the seas would be inclusive to all the nations.
3. There would be no economic barriers between countries. Free trade would be the norm
4. All nations should abstain from an arms race with a view to enhance public safety.
5. Claims regarding colonies should be fair and impartial.
6. Restoration of territories lost by Russia
7. Belgium should be granted freed as was the case before 1914
8. The region of Alsace-Lorraine should be returned to France
9. Italy's frontiers should be drawn keeping nationalities recognizable
10. The various ethnic groups of the Austro-Hungarian Empire must be given a right to self-determination
11. The Balkan states should also be guaranteed self-determination and independence.
12. Turks and those under Turkish rule should be granted self-determination.
13. An independent Poland should be created.
14. A general association of nations must be formed to mediate international disputes.

When the armistice was signed by the German leaders on November 11 1918, they assumed that a future peace treaty would be formulated on the basis of Woodrow Wilson's Fourteen Points. Future events would prove otherwise.
