Crucifixion of Jesus is a comprehensive sourcebook for those looking to gain a more robust understanding of this event through the eyes of ancient writers. Featuring extrabiblical primary texts along with a new translation and commentary by David W. Chapman and Eckhard J. Schnabel, this work is relevant for understanding Jesus' last days. The significance of Jesus' death is apparent from the space that Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John devote to the Passion narrative, from the emphasis of many speeches in the book of Acts, and from the missionary preaching and the theology of the apostle Paul. Exegetical discussions of Jesus' trial and death have employed biblical, Old Testament, and extrabiblical texts in order to understand the events during the Passover of AD 30 that led to Jesus' execution by crucifixion. The purpose of this book is to publish the primary texts that have been cited in the scholarly literature as relevant for understanding Jesus' trial and crucifixion. The texts in the first part deal with Jesus' trial and interrogation before the Sanhedrin, and the texts in the second part concern Jesus' trial before Pilate. The texts in part three represent crucifixion as a method of execution in antiquity. For each document, the authors provide the original text (Hebrew, Aramaic, Greek, or Latin), a translation, and commentary. The commentary describes the literary context and the purpose of each document in context before details are clarified, along with observations on the contribution of these texts to understanding Jesus' trial and crucifixion.

A Dictionary of Christ and the Gospels James Hastings, 2004-10. The purpose of this dictionary is to give an account of everything that relates to Christ: His Person, Life, Work, and Teaching. It is in a sense complementary to the Dictionary of the Bible, in which, of course, Christ has a great place. But a dictionary of the Bible, being occupied mainly with things biographical, historical, geographical, or antiquarian, does not give attention to the things of Christ sufficient for the needs of the preacher to whom Christ is everything. This is first of all a preacher's dictionary. The authors of the articles have been carefully chosen from among those scholars who are or have been themselves preachers. And even when the articles have the same titles as articles in the Dictionary of the Bible, they are written by new men and from a new standpoint. It is thus a work which is quite distinct from and altogether independent of the Dictionary of the Bible It is called a Dictionary of Christ and the Gospels because it includes everything that the Gospels contain whether directly related to Christ or not Its range however is far greater than that of the Gospels It seeks to cover all that relates to Christ throughout the Bible and in the life and literature of the world There will be articles on the Patristic estimate of Jesus the Medieval estimate the Reformation and Modern estimates There will be articles on Christ in the Jewish writings and in the Muslim literature Much attention has been given to modern thought whether Christian or anti Christian Every aspect of modern life in so far as it touches or is touched by Christ is described under its proper title James Hastings 1852 1922 was a distinguished scholar and pastor He was founder and editor of the Expository Times and is also well known for editing the five volume Dictionary of the Bible as well as the Encyclopaedia of Religion and Ethics the Dictionary of Christ and the Gospels and the Dictionary of the Apostolic Church
