Nancy R. Hooyman, Betty J. Kramer

When A Man Faces Grief A Man You Know Is Grieving:

Journey'S End Victoria Brewster, Julie Saeger Nierenberg, 2017-07-20 In Journey s End many and varied collaborators write about death dying and the end of life We attempt to describe real life issues and circumstances and we discuss ways to proactively deal with them Useful training resource and reference material is also included Death dying and end of life are topics many prefer to avoid This book suggests that we benefit from having frank discussions living life to the fullest and planning for our own journey s end whenever that may be Everyone who is born eventually will die whether or not we want to embrace that fact Though few of us know when we will die we and our family or friends can be well prepared We can have discussions and create written directives for what we want if we are unable to verbally state them ourselves Do we want life support Do we want interventions that may or may not have any benefit to our quality of life if we are in the hospital or in an accident Do we want to be involved in planning our funeral memorial or celebration of life The submissions within are from professionals in the field of death and bereavement support and from laypeople all of whom share stories of dying family members friends clients and patients Julie and Victoria the coauthors of this book also share stories from their personal and professional experiences Journey s End is a broadly comprehensive book about death dying and the end of life Death and

Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill Suicide, How to Cope When Someone You Love Has Taken Their Own Life William Henry, 2016-10-14

What do you do when someone you love has taken their own life You have entered a whole new world that you did not choose to enter and where you feel confused and alone This book not only will help guide survivors of suicide through the very difficult time of grief but offers hope at a time that seems so hopeless This book shows how to receive the help so greatly needed and how there can be victory in a time of unbelievable grief Give this book to any person going through this grief process and it will be a great help in traveling the path back to a fruitful and even happy life Those who counsel suicide survivors will find the book a great help in understanding what the survivors are encountering and how they can be encouraged and helped The author has also experienced the trauma of a loved one taking their life and offers much needed guidance from a practical and positive point of view There is hope and there is help Living Through Loss Nancy R. Hooyman, Betty J. Kramer, 2006-02-07 Living Through Loss is the first book to identify the many ways in which people experience loss over the course of life and to discuss the interventions most effective at each stage of life The authors starting point is that loss comes in many forms and can include not only suffering the death of a person one loves but also giving birth to a child with disabilities living with chronic illness or being abused assaulted or otherwise traumatized They approach loss from the perspective of the resilience model which acknowledges the capacity of people to integrate loss into their lives and write sensitively about the role of age race culture sexual orientation gender and spirituality in a person s response to loss More than a comprehensive source on loss the volume is distinguished by the authors beautiful use of clients experiences and their own thus making their book definitive and indelible Tuesday Mornings with the Dads Dads Group, The Dads Group, 2009-08 Tuesday mornings with the dads tells the stories of fourteen men who share the same thing in common they ve all lost children in one way or another It s about how these children lived ow they blessed their families and their communities And more than anything it s about how their fathers have had to continue to live after their deaths Foreword by Tony Dungy Counseling Older People Charlene M. Kampfe, 2015-01-12 This book provides insight into the primary issues faced by older adults the services and benefits available to them and the knowledge base techniques and skills necessary to work effectively in a therapeutic relationship Dr Kampfe offers empirically and anecdotally based strategies and interventions for dealing with clients personal concerns and describes ways counselors can advocate for older people on a systemic level Individual and group exercises are incorporated throughout the book to enhance its practicality Topics covered include an overview of population demographics and characteristics counseling considerations and empowering older clients successful aging mental health and wellness common medical conditions multiple losses and transitions financial concerns elder abuse veterans issues sensory loss changing family dynamics managing Social Security and Medicare working after retirement age retirement transitions losses and gains residential options and death and dying Requests for digital versions from ACA can be found on www.wiley.com To purchase print copies please visit the ACA website Reproduction requests for material from books published by ACA should be directed to publications@counseling.org Gift of Tears Susan Lendrum, Gabrielle Syme, 2004-03-01 This thoroughly revised and updated edition of Gift of Tears includes new research and examples of recent events to help illustrate the effects of loss Containing a strong practical element the book guides the reader through the process of contemplating and eventually confronting their own relationship to loss

Written by experienced counsellors and psychotherapists the book contains candid and readable discussions of central issues including how to understand and work with anger and guilt attachment patterns and loss historical changes in attitudes to death and bereavement death as a particular form of loss Gift of Tears is intended for anyone who finds they have to cope in the course of their daily lives with the grief of others It will prove invaluable to counsellors therapists mental health professionals and all those helping the bereaved www.bereavementarena.com
