When Someone in Your Family Has Cancer ,1994 When Someone You Know Has Depression Susan J. Noonan,2016-06 Following on the success of Managing Your Depression Susan Noonan s new book is for family members and friends of people with depression or bipolar disorder A certified peer specialist at McLean Hospital a comprehensive psychiatric hospital affiliated with Harvard University Susan draws on her experiences providing support and education for those living with or caring for a person who has a mood disorder A family member who has a mood disorder affects the entire family Further family members and close friends are often the first to recognize the subtle changes and symptoms of depression and they are also the people who provide daily support to their loved ones often at great personal price Caring for someone with a mood disorder differs from caring for someone with a physical medical disorder in ways that complicate the caregiving role A concise and practical guide to the daily management of depression and bipolar depression written for the caregiver the book explains how to reinforce lessons the patient has been taught in therapy how to role model resilience skills and how caregivers can and must care for themselves It describes effective communication strategies and advises how to find appropriate professional help Its many tables and worksheets convey much needed information in an accessible way

References Resources and a Glossary complete the package Overall the book helps readers navigate the depression or bipolar disorder of someone close to them providing readers with words to say and things to do as they try to help someone change the course of a sometimes confounding and often disabling illness What I Wish I Knew About Cancer Marty Wilson, Gary Bertwistle, 2011-07-01 Every 29 seconds someone in the world is diagnosed with cancer and in an instant they have to come to terms with a whole new future To help make this adjustment just that little bit easier here is a collection of real advice from real people who have all had first hand experience at the pointy end of cancer What I Wish I Knew about Cancer talks with survivors pre viviors partners husbands wives children researchers and medical professionals and asks them all If you could go back and give your younger self some advice about preventing treating and or outlasting cancer what would it be It then goes on to describe their cancer journey and how they came to their particular insights The result is another inspirational What I Wish I Knew book full of the wisdom of hindsight that would help anyone facing this disease It also has advice on how to better our chances of never hearing those fateful words I m sorry you have cancer What I Wish I Knew about Cancer has been produced to support Tour de Cure Australia s leading cycling foundation Tour de Cure has so far raised over 4 million in cash contributions towards research support and prevention of cancer in men women and children The authors are proud to donate all of their royalties to curing this indiscriminate stubborn and let s face it bloody obnoxious disease
