When Your People Are Grieving Leading In Times Of Loss:

A Professional's Guide to Understanding Trauma and Loss David E. Balk, Tracy Wong, Janet R. Balk, 2023-06-05 The purpose of this book is to provide vital information regarding loss and trauma to practicing counselors and therapists Trauma and loss are pervasive presenting problems many counselors and therapists possess scant understanding of trauma and loss and little if any attention is paid to trauma or to loss in the graduate training of clinical psychology and counseling psychology students The book is organized into four sections which cover an overview of loss and trauma key conceptual frameworks for understanding loss and trauma review of several types of events producing trauma and loss and interventions addressing loss and trauma A key contribution of the book is the focus on losses caused by death and losses due to other reasons The contributions to practice include the overview of what is known about trauma and about loss examination of several frameworks for organizing both understanding of and working with traumatized and bereaved clients rich descriptive cases of individuals coping with various traumatic events and the losses embedded in the trauma and presentation of various interventions including changes that can be made in the graduate education of practitioners

The Ministry of Lament Gene T. Fowler, 2010-07-01 For pastors and congregations caring for those who are grieving is a very important but difficult job Gene Fowler believes that the church needs a theological understanding of bereavement that can inform the ministry of caring for grieving people The heart of The Ministry of Lament addresses the relationship between bereavement and the Christian faith in the service of caring ministry Throughout the book Fowler brings the psalms of lament into dialogue with a contemporary understanding of mourning so that the entire grief process can be addressed theologically

The Ministry of Lament Gene Fowler, 2022-05-17 Through his own hard won wisdom as a pastor who is thoroughly acquainted with grief Gene Fowler shows how these biblical and contemporary understandings of lament provide invaluable guidance for the pastor who knowing that the grieving of irrevocable losses is an ever present reality in the life of the congregation seeks realistic and reliable guidance in how to care for the bereaved and how to enable the congregation to become a genuine community of fellow mourners Donald Capps Princeton Theological Seminary Gene Fowler skillfully maneuvers the winding road of bereavement with the psalms of lament as accompaniment With attention to the terrain of individuality as well as the congregational setting Fowler traverses new territory in a twenty first century approach to caring for grieving people Unlike an interstate with its clear ramps markers and exits the valley of the shadow of death is uneven with hidden crevices detours and dimly lit passages Challenging the traditional understanding of grief as a series of universal stages unfolding according to a preconceived timetable Fowler draws from psychotherapists and theologians to ground a new relationship between spirituality and grief Jeanne Stevenson Moessner Perkins School of Theology SMU While making a compelling case for how notions of care have been hijacked truncated and curtailed Gene Fowler expands the ability of caregivers and congregations to provide the long term acts of faithful healing that deep loss requires The book is given particular clarity through examples of movies books stories and Psalms that help healers see anew their task to compassionately and creatively encourage the bereaved as they rewrite the story of their lives Andrew L McDonald Senior Pastor Westminster Church Lincoln Nebraska

Living, Loving and Loss Brad DeFord, Richard Gilbert, 2016-12-05 One of the unspoken aspects of mourning concerns the ways that loss affects our intimate relationships and our sexual expressiveness This text opens these subjects for conversation with the aim of promoting the trust care and respect that enable us to be vulnerable It purposefully covers a range of topics including 1 the meaning of intimacy and the significance of sexuality providing a basis for the use of these terms throughout the book 2 death grief and differences in sexual orientation including death and intimacy in the lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT community and the losses endured by young people due to gender issues 3 loss of relationship and restoration of intimacy in families including pharmacological effects on the grief processes of widowers grieving a not so loved parent the layered losses of infertility and intimacy and the tolls of war intimacy and sexuality challenges for soldiers and their families 4 adjusting to life's losses associated with aging or illness or infirmity including Alzheimer's and dementia related illnesses physical health losses after 50 and intimacy sex and hospice self determination and dignity at the end of life and 5 religious bases that have shaped our perspectives for understanding intimacy sexuality and healing after loss and which give us hope including the spiritual reflections of a rabbi and a Christian voice in defining what is right Set in a framework that is both psychological and spiritual the well researched contributions are intended to acknowledge these experiences both professionally and personally The book concludes with an extensive bibliography valuable for research and reference This book will be of value in undergraduate and graduate courses on thanatology as well as for anyone interested in knowing more about grief both those currently bereaved and those who wish to support others in mourning The contributors appreciate both the importance of our capacities for intimacy and sexuality and our inhibitions and hesitations in giving voice to our needs and concerns perhaps especially when we are grieving The information and compassionate understanding they provide encourage us to bridge the gap between the secret and the private and to share what is close to our hearts

me than I am able to capture I had to let you know that the Lord has deeply impacted me through your book Thank you Jim Amandus Senior Pastor at Highlands Community Church near Seattle Outside the Camp tells the story of a former pastors journey through a season of turmoil and personal failure The story of his decade of disillusionment sets the context for his observations as a church outsider in regards to how evangelical churches often fail in response to the wounded the outcasts and the sinners in their midst Offered in the form of Biblical lament three concerns are addressed the evangelical church does not truly offer or even fully understand the gospel of grace it preaches instead suggesting that believers need to try harder and do more to prove themselves worthy of Gods favor the faith community is artificial rather than authentic and too often the wounds of its soldiers are left unattended people whose pain is too deep and complex for the church to easily comprehend are referred outside the church for the help they need to survive or they are simply neglected The book concludes with a consideration of Gods intent to restore sinners by offering grace that is full and free with a call for the church to once again communicate the unadulterated gospel to all who need its healing balm
