The Terrorist In Search Of Humanity Militant Islam And Global Politics:

Terrorist in Search of Humanity Faisal Devji, 2019-12-01 Faisal Devji argues that new forms of militancy such as the actions of al Qaeda are informed by the same desire for agency and equality that animates other humanitarian interventions such as environmentalism and pacifism To the militant victimized Muslims are more than just symbols of ethnic and religious persecution they represent humanity's centuries long struggle for legitimacy and agency Acts of terror therefore are fueled by the militant's desire to become a historical actor on the global stage Though they have yet to build concrete political institutions militant movements have formed a kind of global society and as Devji makes clear this society pursues the same humanitarian objectives that drive more benevolent groups The Terrorist in Search of Humanity Faisal Devji, 2020 Argues that various forms of militancy such as the actions of al Qaeda are informed by the same desire for agency and equality that animates other humanitarian interventions such as environmentalism and pacifism Media and Utopia Arvind Rajagopal, Anupama Rao, 2017-07-05 Collective political projects have become ephemeral and are subject to radical forms of erasure through cooptation division redefinition or intimidation in present times Media and Utopia responds to the resulting crisis of the social by investigating the links between mediation and political imagination This volume addresses those utopian spaces historically constituted through media and analyses the conditions that made them possible Individual essays deal with non Western histories of technopolitics through distinctive perspectives on how to conceive the relationship between social form everyday life and utopian possibility and by examining a range of media formats and genres from print sound and film to new media With contributions from major scholars in the field this book will be of interest to researchers and scholars of media studies culture studies sociology modern South Asian history and politics Transgressive Truths and Flattering Lies Markus Schmitz, 2020-04-02 This book explores the formative correlations and inventive transmissions of Anglophone Arab representations ranging from early 20th century Mahjar writings to contemporary transnational Palestinian resistance art Tracing multiple beginnings and seminal intertexts the comparative study of dissonant truth making presents critical readings in which the notion of cross cultural translation gets displaced and strategic unreliability representational opacity or matters of act advance to essential qualities of the discussed works aesthetic devices and ethical concerns Questioning conventional interpretive approaches Markus Schmitz shows what Anglophone Arab studies are and what they can become from a radically decentered relational point of view Among the writers and artists discussed are such diverse figures as Rabih Alameddine William Blatty Kahlil Gibran Ihab Hassan Jabra Ibrahim Jabra Emily Jacir Walid Raad Ameen Rihani Edward Said Larissa Sansour and Raja Shehadeh Hostage Spaces of the Contemporary Islamicate World Dejan Lukic, 2012-11-21 How is hostage space constructed In this age long procedure found in conflicts around the world strange forms of terror and intimacy arise particularly in the contemporary Islamic cultures of Chechnya Albania and Bosnia This book investigates the modes of desire and politics found in kidnapping in order to reveal the voices of victims and kidnappers that often remain closed up Dejan Lukic explores the spaces where hostages and hostage takers come into contact spaces of accident sacrifice hope and catastrophe or in other words the spaces that announce utopias bound to fail In this book the figures of the victim the terrorist the sovereign the resistance fighter and the witness among others emerge with a new face one that will contribute to our understandings of what it means to act politically and ethically today Terror and Performance Rustom Bharucha,2014-04-16 This work goes where other books fear to tread It reaches the parts other scholars might imagine in their dreams but would neither have the international reach nor the critical acumen and forensic flourish to deliver Alan Read King s College London This book is not only timely It is overdue and it is a masterpiece unrivalled by any book I know of Erika Fischer Lichte Freie Universit t Berlin The first and only book that focuses on the intersections of performance terror and terrorism as played out beyond a Euro American context post 9 11 It is an important work both substantively and methodologically Jenny Hughes University of Manchester A profound and tightly bound sequence of reflections a rigorously provocative book Stephen Barber Kingston University London In this exceptional investigation Rustom Bharucha considers the realities of Islamophobia the legacies of Truth and Reconciliation the deadly certitudes of State controlled security systems and the legitimacy of counter terror terrorism drawing on a vast spectrum of human cruelties across the global South The outcome is a brilliantly argued case for seeing terror as a volatile and mutant phenomenon that is deeply lived experienced and performed within the cultures of everyday life American Mourning Simon Stow,2017-07-25 This insightful study employs public mourning as a lens to identify and address the shortcomings of American democracy Emerging Military Technologies Bernhard Koch,Richard Schoonhoven,2022-04-19 The speed of technological change is demonstrated not least by the new military technologies that are in use or are currently being developed For example the use of remote controlled and semi autonomous weapons systems has long been standard in the armed forces and advances in artificial intelligence mean that more decision making can be expected to be transferred to the machines used by the military But not everything that is technologically possible is ethically justifiable This volume which brings together contributions to an annual conference of the European Chapter of the International Society for Military Ethics attempts to address the ethical and legal problems posed by emerging military technologies In a number of exciting essays internationally renowned researchers present their insights The Muslim World Book Review ,2010 The Publishers Weekly ,2008 2010 [catalog] Degruyter,2010-12-16 Reviews are an important aspect of scholarly discussion because they help filter out which works are relevant in the yearly flood of publications and are thus influential in determining how a work is received The IBR published again since 1971 as an interdisciplinary international bibliography of reviews it is a unique source of bibliographical information The database contains entries on over 1 2 million book reviews of literature dealing primarily with the humanities and social sciences published in 6 820 mainly European scholarly journals Reviews of more than 560 000 scholarly works are listed The database increases every year by 60 000 entries Every entry

Political Islam Frédéric Volpi,2011 Providing the student with an accessible and comprehensive introduction to the study of political Islam this reader offers a clear route to the most influential literature in the field The diverse range of viewpoints presented allows students to obtain a broad enlightened and cosmopolitan perspective on the most pressing questions of the post 9 11 era New Powers Amrita Narlikar,2010 Being the new kid on the block is seldom easy at any level and it is certainly not easy in the anarchical world of international politics New powers such as Brazil China and India have to tread a difficult balance as they negotiate their way to the top They must signal a sufficient level of conformity to show that they do not pose a threat to the system and thereby avoid preemptive reprisals But habitually conciliatory diplomacy is likely to lead established powers to regard them as pushovers Effective bargaining holds the key to finding the balance between these extremes Established powers also have no straightforward answers available to them If the aims of the new power are limited then engagement is a worthwhile enterprise But if they are radically revisionist or revolutionary then its disruptive potential to the system may necessitate containment from the established powers Assessing the intentions of new powers and responding appropriately is crucial for the maintenance of international peace and stability The key to such an assessment lies in an analysis of negotiation behaviour which Narlikar examines in the case of the three most important candidates vying for great power status today Brazil China and India Together they present some fascinating commonalities in their diplomacy but also significant differences The range of cases of new powers studied here also allows us some scope for generalization on how new entrants into great power clubs might behave and what strategies the established powers can use most effectively to accommodate their rise Transatlantic Fascism Federico Finchelstein,2010-01-11 This history of the connections between Argentine and Italian fascisms explains how Italy promoted fascism in Argentina and how far right Argentines adopted some elements of Italian fascism and rejected others

Performances of Violence Austin Sarat,Carleen Basler,Thomas L. Dumm,2011 An interdisciplinary analysis of the cultural meanings of violence Contesting Islam, Constructing Race and Sexuality Sunera Thobani,2020-12-10 The current political standoffs of the War on Terror illustrate that the interaction within and between the so called Western and Middle Eastern civilizations is constantly in flux A recurring theme however is how Islam and Muslims signify the Enemy in the Western socio cultural imagination and have become the Other against which the West identifies itself In a unique and insightful blend of critical race feminist and post colonial theory Sunera Thobani examines how Islam is foundational to the formation of Western identity at critical points in its history including the Crusades the Reconquista and the colonial period More specifically she explores how masculinity and femininity are formed at such pivotal junctures and what role feminism has played in the wars against radical Islam Exposing these symbiotic relationships Thobani explores how the return of religion is reworking the racial gender and sexual politics by which Western society defines itself and more specifically defines itself against Islam Contesting Islam Constructing Race and Sexuality unpacks conventional as well as unconventional orthodoxies to open up new spaces in how we think about sexual and racial identity in the West and the crucial role that Islam has had and continues to have in its development
