Urbanization and Contemporary Chinese Art Meiqin Wang, 2015-08-11 This book explores the relationship between the ongoing urbanization in China and the production of contemporary Chinese art since the beginning of the twenty first century Wang provides a detailed analysis of artworks and methodologies of art making from eight contemporary artists who employ a wide range of mediums including painting sculpture photography installation video and performance She also sheds light on the relationship between these artists and their sociocultural origins investigating their provocative responses to various processes and problems brought about by Chinese urbanization With this urbanization comes a fundamental shift of the philosophical and aesthetic foundations in the practice of Chinese art from a strong affiliation with nature and countryside to one that is complexly associated with the city and the urban world

Art and Risk in Ancient Yoruba

Suzanne Preston Blier, 2017-11-02 In this book Suzanne Preston Blier examines the intersection of art risk and creativity in early African arts from the Yoruba center of Ife and the striking ways that ancient Ife artworks inform society politics history and religion Yoruba art offers a unique lens into one of Africa's most important and least understood early civilizations one whose historic arts have long been of interest to local residents and Westerners alike because of their tour de force visual power and technical complexity Among the complementary subjects explored are questions of art making art viewing and aesthetics in the famed ancient Nigerian city state as well as the attendant risks and danger assumed by artists patrons and viewers alike in certain forms of subject matter and modes of portrayal including unique genres of body marking portraiture animal symbolism and regalia This volume celebrates art history and the shared passion and skill with which the remarkable artists of early Ife sought to define their past for generations of viewers
