The Unknown Life of Jesus Christ Nicolas Notovitch, 1894 The Unknown Life of Jesus Christ Nicolas

Notovitch, 2017-08-07 After the Turkish War 1877 1878 I made a series of travels in the Orient From the little remarkable Balkan peninsula I went across the Caucasus to Central Asia and Persia and finally in 1887 visited India an admirable country which had attracted me from my earliest childhood My purpose in this journey was to study and know at home the peoples who inhabit India and their customs the grand and mysterious archaeology and the colossal and majestic nature of their country Wandering about without fixed plans from one place to another I came to mountainous Afghanistan whence I regained India by way of the picturesque passes of Bolan and Guernai Then going up the Indus to Raval Pindi I ran over the Pendjab the land of the five rivers visited the Golden Temple of Amritsa the tomb of the King of Pendjab Randjid Singh near Lahore and turned toward Kachmyr The Valley of Eternal Bliss Thence I directed my peregrinations as my curiosity impelled me until I arrived in Ladak whence I intended returning to Russia by way of Karakorum and Chinese Turkestan One day while visiting a Buddhist convent on my route I learned from a chief lama that there existed in the archives of Lhasa very ancient memoirs relating to the life of Jesus Christ and the occidental nations and that certain great monasteries possessed old copies and translations of those chronicles As it was little probable that I should make another journey into this country I resolved to put off my return to Europe until a later date and cost what it might either find those copies in the great convents or go to Lhasa a journey which is far from being so dangerous and difficult as is generally supposed involving only such perils as I was already accustomed to and which would not make me hesitate at attempting it During my sojourn at Leh capital of Ladak I visited the great convent Himis situated near the city the chief lama of which informed me that their monastic library contained copies of the manuscripts in question In order that I might not awaken the suspicions of the authorities concerning the object of my visit to the cloister and to evade obstacles which might be opposed to me as a Russian prosecuting further my journey in Thibet I gave out upon my return to Leh that I would depart for India and so left the capital of Ladak An unfortunate fall causing the breaking of a leg furnished me with an absolutely unexpected pretext for returning to the monastery where I received surgical attention I took advantage of my short sojourn among the lamas to obtain the consent of their chief that they should bring to me from their library the manuscripts relating to Jesus Christ and assisted by my interpreter who translated for me the Thibetan language transferred carefully to my notebook what the lama read to me Not doubting at all the authenticity of this chronicle edited with great exactitude by the Brahminic and more especially the Buddhistic historians of India and Nepaul I desired upon my return to Europe to publish a translation of it To this end I addressed myself to several universally known ecclesiastics asking them to revise my notes and tell me what they thought of them Mgr Platon the celebrated metropolitan of Kiew thought that my discovery was of great importance

Nevertheless he sought to dissuade me from publishing the memoirs believing that their publication could only hurt me Why This the venerable prelate refused to tell me more explicitly Nevertheless since our conversation took place in Russia where the censor would have put his veto upon such a work I made up my mind to wait

After the Turkish War 1877 1878 I made a series of travels in the Orient From the little remarkable Balkan peninsula I went across the Caucasus to Central Asia and Persia and finally in 1887 visited India an admirable country which had attracted me from my earliest childhood My purpose in this journey was to study and know at home the peoples who inhabit India and their customs the grand and mysterious archaeology and the colossal and majestic nature of their country Wandering about without fixed plans from one place to another I came to mountainous Afghanistan whence I regained India by way of the picturesque passes of Bolan and Guernai Then going up the Indus to Raval Pindi I ran over the Pendjab the land of the five rivers visited the Golden Temple of Amritsa the tomb of the King of Pendjab Randjid Singh near Lahore and turned toward Kachmyr The Valley of Eternal Bliss Thence I directed my peregrinations as my curiosity impelled me until I arrived in Ladak whence I intended returning to Russia by way of Karakorum and Chinese Turkestan An unfortunate fall causing the breaking of a leg furnished me with an absolutely unexpected pretext for returning to the monastery where I received surgical attention I took advantage of my short sojourn among the lamas to obtain the consent of their chief that they should bring to me from their library the manuscripts relating to Jesus Christ and assisted by my interpreter who translated for me the Tibetan language transferred carefully to my notebook what the lama read to me Not doubting at all the authenticity of this Preface chronicle edited with great exactitude by the Brahminic and more especially the Buddhistic historians of India and Nepal I desired upon my return to Europe to publish a translation of it To this end I addressed myself to several universally known ecclesiastics asking them to revise my notes and tell me what they thought of them Mgr Platon the celebrated metropolitan of Kiew thought that my discovery was of great importance Nevertheless he sought to dissuade me from publishing the memoirs believing that their publication could only hurt me Why This the venerable prelate refused to tell me more explicitly Nevertheless since our conversation took place in Russia where the censor would have put his veto upon such a work I made up my mind to wait A year later I found myself in Rome I showed my manuscript to a cardinal very near to the Holy Father who answered me literally in these words What good will it do to print this Nobody will attach to it any great importance and you will create a number of enemies But you are still very young If it is a question of money which concerns you I can ask for you a reward for your notes a sum which will repay your expenditures and recompense you for your loss of time Of course I refused In Paris I spoke of my project to Cardinal Rotelli whose acquaintance I had made in Constantinople He too was opposed to having my work printed under the pretext that it would be premature The church he added suffers already too much from the new current of atheistic ideas and you will but give a new food to the calumniators and detractors of the evangelical doctrine I tell you this in the interest of all the Christian churches Then I went to see M Jules Simon He found my matter very interesting and advised me to ask the opinion of M Renan as to the best way of publishing these memoirs The Unknown Life of Jesus Christ (Hardcover Library Edition)
