The Tigers of Baluchistan Sylvia A. The Politics of Ethnicity in Pakistan Farhan Hanif Siddiqi, 2012 In order to understand the Pakistani state and government s treatment of non dominant ethnic groups after the failure of the military operation in East Pakistan and the independence of Bangladesh this book looks at the ethnic movements that were subject to a military operation after 1971 the Baloch in the 1970s the Sindhis in the 1980s and Mohajirs in the 1990s The book critically evaluates the literature on ethnicity and nationalism by taking nationalist ideology and the political divisions which it generates within ethnic groups as essential in estimating ethnic movements It goes on to challenge the modernist argument that nationalism is only relevant to modern industrialised socio economic settings The available evidence from Pakistan makes clear that ethnic movements emanate from three distinct socio economic realms tribal Baloch rural Sindh and urban Mohajir and the book looks at the implications that this has as well as how further arguments could be advanced about the relevance of ethnic movements and politics in the Third World It provides academics and researchers with background knowledge of how the Baloch Sindhi and Mohajir ethnic conflict in Pakistan took shape in a historical context as well as probable future scenarios of the relationship between the Pakistani state and government and ethnic groups and movements The Problem of "Greater Baluchistan"

Roads and Rivals Mahnaz Ispahani, 2019-05-15 Over the past two centuries the borderlands of Central South and West Asia have been transformed from the remote peripheries into areas of intense regional and international interest In Roads and Rivals Mahnaz Ispahani explores the crucial but unacknowledged role that land routes have played in the strategic political and economic evolution of those borderlands

The Pakistan Paradox Christophe Jaffrelot, 2015-08-15 Pakistan was born as the creation of elite Urdu speaking Muslims who sought to govern a state that would maintain their dominance After rallying non Urdu speaking leaders around him Jinnah imposed a unitary definition of the new nation state that obliterated linguistic diversity This centralisation justified by the Indian threat fostered centrifugal forces that resulted in Bengali secessionism in 1971 and Baloch as well as Mohajir separatisms today Concentration of power in the hands of the establishment remained the norm and while authoritarianism peaked under military rule democracy failed to usher in reform and the rule of law remained fragile at best under Zulfikar Bhutto and later Nawaz Sharif While Jinnah and Ayub Khan regarded religion as a cultural marker since their time the Islamists have gradually prevailed They benefited from the support of General Zia while others including sectarian groups cashed in on their struggle against the establishment to woo the disenfranchised Today Pakistan faces existential challenges ranging from ethnic strife to Islamism two sources of instability which hark back to elite domination But the resilience of the country and its people the resolve of the judiciary and hints of reform in the army may open up new possibilities
