to see around the grounds of the estate the figures of a man and woman whom she does not recognize These figures come and go at will without ever being seen or challenged by other members of the household and they seem to the governess to be supernatural She learns from Mrs Grose that her predecessor Miss Jessel and another employee Peter Quint had had a sexual relationship with each other and had both died Prior to their deaths they spent much of their time with Flora and Miles and this fact has grim significance for the governess when she becomes convinced that the two children are secretly aware of the presence of the ghosts Later Flora leaves the house while Miles plays music for the governess They notice Flora's absence and go to look for her The governess and Mrs Grose find her in a clearing in the wood and the governess is convinced that she has been talking to Miss Jessel When she finally confronts Flora Flora denies seeing Miss Jessel and demands never to see the governess again Mrs Grose takes Flora away to her uncle leaving the governess with Miles That night they are finally talking of Miles' expulsion when the ghost of Quint appears to the governess at the window The governess shields Miles who attempts to see the ghost The governess tells him that he is no longer controlled by the ghost and then finds that Miles has died in her arms
