Some Other Frequency Larry McCaffery, 1996 McCaffery converses with the young recklessly daring and furiously productive William Vollmann and with Marianne Hauser who published her first novel nearly sixty years ago with Native American trickster novelist Gerald Vizenor and guerrilla writer Harold Jaffe whose literary technique is to plant a bomb sneak away with stark minimalist Lydia Davis and text and collage artist Derek Pell with muscular pop icon Mark Leyner and proto punk diva Kathy Acker. They are a diverse lot shaped by very different literary and personal influences and addressing divergent readerships.

Comedy and Culture Fabian Alfie, 2017-12-02 This work examines the ways in which the culture and society of the Middle Ages impacted on the works of the Sienese poet Cecco Angiolieri c 1260-1312. It analyzes how Angiolieri's poetry conformed to medieval notions and practices of comicality. The study explores the means by which Cecco satirized important cultural movements of the late 13th and early 14th centuries such as love literature and the ascendant Franciscan order. In addition it looks at his relations with other writers of the day including three insulting sonnets addressed to Dante Alighieri. The text shows that Angiolieri was not an isolated bizarre figure as some early 20th century scholars have described him but rather an author in step with his times.
