Community Participation in School Management Kazuro Shibuya, 2022-09-12 Nobody denies that trust in schools is key to success in generating any educational outcomes However trust is often eroded resulting in conflicts alienation and differentiation among school level stakeholders This book analyses school based management SBM of education through the lens of relational trust in the context of Ghana revealing how community participation in school management leads to educational outcomes Conducting quantitative analysis of headteacher questionnaires from public basic schools and qualitative analysis of case study schools in the Akatsi South District of Ghana Shibuya offers critical insights into building sustainable relationships between individual households and geographical school communities He argues it is critical to highlight relational trust as an analytical tool to examine relationships between actors and factors in school management The research finds that trust in schools is a two way mechanism and the mutuality of expectations and obligations among stakeholders is essential if children s learning outcomes are to improve With its mixed methods approach this book will be a valuable resource for scholars in comparative education those in educational development and those interested in African contexts

Odyssey of a Bombardier John J. Hurt, Steven E. Sidebotham, 2014-09-26 Odyssey of a Bombardier is the illustrated Prisoner of War log that depicts the experiences of bombardier Richard M Mason in German prison camps after his B 17 Flying Fortress was shot down by the Germans in France in 1944 the final year of World War II The log follows Mason from the day his plane crashed until his liberation in April 1945 and his return home to the United States Included are such topics as medical treatment and rehabilitation for wounded prisoners of the Germans life in Stalag Luft III a difficult long march in an arctic winter to another camp the travails of prisoners in the overcrowded filthy camp at Moosburg critical food shortages and the arrival of General George Patton with the liberating forces Mason was an amateur artist and illustrated his journal with moving depictions of prison life and comradeship This book shows U S airmen demonstrating grace and courage under pressure and meeting every challenge that their imprisonment presented

Tourism, Change and the Global South Jarkko Saarinen, Jayne M. Rogerson, 2021-06-16 This significant volume is the first to focus on both the changing nature of tourism and the capacity of tourism to effect change especially in the Global South Geographically this changing nature of tourism is based on the transforming relationships between demand supply and location While this is nothing new in tourism recent decades have intensified the changing characteristics of global tourism From another perspective tourism represents a change and nowadays many localities and regions aim to use tourism as a tool for positive change i e development However this has turned out to be a challenging task in practice especially in the Global South context where the relationship between tourism growth and local development has often been controversial This book looks at a host of critical concepts in one volume such as growth and development adaptation and resilience sustainability and responsibility governance and planning and heritage and destination management strategies By understanding the drivers of change this book sheds new insight into the promise and role of sustainability and responsibility in tourism development This book will be of great interest to all upper level students academics and researchers in the fields of Tourism Geography and Cultural and Heritage studies
