Programming the Future Sherryl Vint, Jonathan Alexander, 2022-11-01 From 9 11 to COVID 19 the twenty first century looks increasingly dystopian and so do its television shows Long form science fiction narratives take one step further the fears of today liberal democracy in crisis growing economic precarity the threat of terrorism and omnipresent corporate control At the same time many of these shows attempt to visualize alternatives using dystopian extrapolations to spotlight the possibility of building a better world Programming the Future examines how recent speculative television takes on the contradictions of the neoliberal order Sherryl Vint and Jonathan Alexander consider a range of popular SF narratives of the last two decades including Battlestar Galactica Watchmen Colony The Man in the High Castle The Expanse and Mr Robot They argue that science fiction television foregrounds governance as part of explaining the novel institutions and norms of its imagined futures In so doing SF shows allegorize and critique contemporary social political and economic developments helping audiences resist the naturalization of the status quo Vint and Alexander also draw on queer theory to explore the representation of family structures and their relationship to larger social structures Recasting both dystopian and utopian narratives Programming the Future shows how depictions of alternative world political struggles speak to urgent real world issues of identity belonging and social and political change Edinburgh Critical History of Middle Ages and Renaissance

Philosophy Andrew LaZella, 2020-05-01 A team of leading international scholars examine Middle Ages and Renaissance philosophy from the perspective of themes and lines of thought that cut across authors disciplines and national boundaries opening up new ways to conceptualise the history of this period within philosophy politics religious studies and literature

Tormented Discovery Jayson James, 2013-01-28 Justin and Derrick have a secret that they revealed only to their closest friends They are gay and are now a couple The story of Justin and Derrick continues as they learn more about being a gay couple in their senior year of high school and the complications that arise from it Some friends will have their backs while others simply stand on the sidelines Other friends will be accepting and others will ridicule them Sometimes love is almost not enough to save a relationship and both Derrick and Justin begin to have their doubts as they watch relationships around them rise and fall Justin and Derrick both want to have new experiences new choices and make new friends which leads to them questioning their own relationship They soon discover that some of the people they consider friends have their own secrets some darker than others The couple begins to see how people react towards homosexuality and just how people want to deal with it and them Will Justin and Derrick be able to hold onto each other while their lives and secrets spiral around them Or will they decide to step back and give up on themselves and each other The Only Way Out is Through Gail Gross, 2018-01-26 Books on grief often fall into two categories memoir or science In The Only Way Out is Through Dr Gail Gross combines the two in an inspiring story of loss alongside the analytical psychology that helped her find her own re entry into life The Only Way Out is Through tells the story of a mother s sudden loss of a child and the impact on the family as a whole It offers a comprehensive approach to healing for the bereaved and helps them reenter life on new terms The Only Way Out is Through is not only a book about grieving but a guide to successfully navigating transitions the endings and beginnings of life Dr Gail helps readers learn to listen to their own inner voices the deepest part of the unconscious so that reorienting and reshaping the future seems possible Offering strategies for dealing not just with profound grief but with living beyond a devastating loss she provides a map for those looking for guidance comfort care and hope The State Trooper ,1926
