The formation of Croatian national identity Alex Bellamy, 2013-07-19 This book assesses the formation of Croatian national identity in the 1990s It develops a novel framework calling into question both primordial and modernist approaches to nationalism and national identity before applying that framework to Croatia In doing so the book provides a new way of thinking about how national identity is formed and why it is so important An explanation is given of how Croatian national identity was formed in the abstract via a historical narrative that traces centuries of yearning for a national state The book shows how the government opposition parties dissident intellectuals and diaspora groups offered alternative accounts of this narrative in order to legitimise contemporary political programmes based on different versions of national identity It then looks at how these debates were manifested in social activities as diverse as football religion economics and language This book attempts to make an important contribution to both the way we study nationalism and national identity and our understanding of post Yugoslav politics and society An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence

Forging Transnational Belonging through Informal Trade Sandra King-Savic, 2021-04-08 Analyzing informal trading practices and smuggling through the case study of Novi Pazar this book explores how societies cope when governments no longer assume the responsibility for providing welfare to their citizens How do economic transnational practices shape one's sense of belonging in times of crisis precarity Specifically how does the collapse of the Ottoman Empire and the subsequent migration of the Muslim Slav population to Turkey relate to the Yugoslav Succession Wars during the 1990s Using the case study of Novi Pazar a town in Serbia that straddles the borders of Montenegro Serbia and Kosovo that became a smuggling hub during the Yugoslav conflict the book focuses on that informal market economy as a prism through which to analyze the strengthening of existing relations between the migr community in Turkey and the local Bosniak population in the Sand ak region Demonstrating the interactive nature of relations between the state and local and migr communities this book will be of interest to scholars and students interested in Southeastern Europe or the Yugoslav Succession Wars of the 1990s as well as social anthropologists who are working on social relations and deviant behavior Confronting the Yugoslav Controversies Charles W. Ingrao, Thomas Allan Emmert, 2013 This collection of essays examines Yugoslavia s dissolution and the subsequent wars The Past in Exile Birgit Bock-Luna, 2007 In this study of identity politics memory and long distance nationalism among Serbian migrants in California the author examines the complicated ways in which visions of the past are used to form Diaspora subjects and make claims to the homeland in the present Drawing on extended fieldwork in the San Francisco Bay Area community she shows how the Yugoslav wars generated a revaluation Serbian history and personal life stories resulting in the strengthening of ethnic identity Nevertheless strategies for dealing with rupture and change also included contestation of exile nationalism State Identities and the Homogenisation of Peoples Heather Rae, 2002-08-15 Why are forced displacement ethnic cleansing and genocide an enduring feature of state systems In this book Heather Rae locates these practices of pathological homogenisation in the processes of state building Political elites have repeatedly used cultural resources to redefine bounded political communities as exclusive moral communities from which outsiders must be expelled Showing that these practices predate the age of nationalism Rae examines cases from both pre nationalist and nationalist eras the expulsion of the Jews from fifteenth century Spain the persecution of the Huguenots under Louis XIV and in the twentieth century the Armenian genocide and ethnic cleansing in former Yugoslavia She argues that those atrocities prompted the development of international norms of legitimate state behaviour that increasingly define sovereignty as conditional Rae concludes by examining two threshold cases the Czech Republic and Macedonia to identify the factors that may inhibit pathological homogenization as a method of state building Is Toronto Burning? 1977/1978/1979 York University (Toronto, Ont.).
