Vintage Munro Alice Munro, 2014-04-22 Six of Nobel Prize winning author Alice Munro's revelatory short stories that unfold the wordless secrets that lie at the center of the human experience Alice Munro is often able to say more in thirty pages than an ordinary novelist is capable of in three hundred She is a virtuoso of the elliptical the master of the contemporary short story Munro like few others has come close to solving the greatest mystery of them all the human heart and its caprices From the Presentation Speech Nobel Prize in Literature 2013 Vintage Munro includes stories from throughout Alice Munro's storied career the title stories from her collections The Moons of Jupiter The Progress of Love and Hateship Friendship Courtship Loveship Marriage as well as Differently from Friend of My Youth Carried Away from Open Secrets and In Sight of the Lake from Dear Life This edition includes the Nobel Prize Presentation Speech The Cambridge Companion to Alice Munro David Staines, 2016-03-10 This Companion is a complete introduction to the fictional and non-fictional writings of the Nobel Prize winner Alice Munro The Epistolary Renaissance Maria Löschnigg, Rebekka Schuh, 2018-09-10 Since the late twentieth century letters in literature have seen a remarkable renaissance The prominence of letters in recent fiction is due in part to the rediscovery by contemporary writers of letters as an effective tool for rendering aspects of historicity liminality marginalization and the expression of subjectivity vis vis another it is also due however to the artistically challenging inclusion of the new electronic media of communication into fiction While studies of epistolary fiction have so far concentrated on the eighteenth century and on thematic concerns this volume charts the epistolary renaissance in recent literature entering new territory by also focusing on the aesthetic implications of the epistolary mode In particular the essays in this volume illuminate the potential of the epistolary including digital forms for rendering contemporary sensitivities The volume thus offers a comprehensive assessment of letter narratives in contemporary literature Through its focus on the aesthetic and structural aspects of new epistolary fiction the inclusion of various narrative forms and the consideration of both conventional letters and their new digital kindred The Epistolary Renaissance offers novel insight into a multi-faceted re-newed genre The Nobel Prize and the Formation of Contemporary World Literature Paul Tenngart, 2023-10-05 An exploration of the history ambitions and impact of the Nobel Prize in literature as it gained a central position in 20th century global literary culture Few scholars would deny that the Nobel Prize is the most prestigious literary award in the world But what mechanisms made it possible for 18 Swedish intellectuals to become the world's most influential literary critics Paul Tenngart argues that the Nobel Prize in literature has become a special kind of international canonization exerted from a non-central semi-peripheral position the award sometimes confirms and reinforces hierarchical relations between literary languages and cultures and sometimes disturbs established patterns of dominance and dependence Drawing from a wide range of contemporary theories and methods this multifaceted history of the Nobel Prize questions how the Swedish Academy has managed to keep the prize's global status through all the violent international crises of the last 120 years how the selection of laureates shaped the idea of universal literary values and defined literary quality across languages and cultures and what impact the prize has had on the distribution and significance of particular works literatures and languages The Nobel Prize and the Formation of Contemporary World Literature explores the history and impact of the Nobel Prize in literature from the first award in 1901 through recent controversies involving Bob Dylan and MeToo arguing that the prize is a unique performative act that has been and still is central in our continual and collective construction of world literature
