War Orphans The Terra Nova Chronicles 2:

Chronicle of the Horse, 1985 The Catholic Who's who and Yearbook Francis Cowley Burnand, 1928 Playful Memories Jordana Blejmar, 2016-12-28 This volume examines the blending of fact and fiction in a series of cultural artefacts by post dictatorship writers and artists in Argentina many of them children of disappeared or persecuted parents Jordana Blejmar argues that these works which emerged after the turn of the millennium pay testament to a new cultural formation of memory characterised by the use of autofiction and playful aesthetics She focuses on a range of practitioners including Laura Alcoba Lola Arias Felix Bruzzone Albertina Carri Mar a Giuffra Victoria Grigera Dupuy Mariana Eva Perez Lucila Quieto and Ernesto Sem n who look towards each other s works across boundaries of genre and register as part of the way they address the legacies of the 1976 1983 dictatorship Approaching these works not as second hand or adoptive memories but as memories in their own right Blejmar invites us to recognise the subversive power of self figuration play and humour when dealing with trauma Maps, Myths, and Men Kirsten A. Seaver, 2004 The Vinland Map first surfaced on the antiquarian market in 1957 and the map s authenticity has been hotly debated ever since in controversies ranging from the anomalous composition of the ink and the map s lack of provenance to a plethora of historical and cartographical riddles Maps Myths and Men is the first work to address the full range of this debate Focusing closely on what the map in fact shows the book contains a critique of the 1965 work The Vinland Map and the Tartar Relation scrutinizes the marketing strategies used in 1957 and covers many aspects of the map that demonstrate it is a modern fake such as literary evidence and several scientific ink analyses performed between 1967 and 2002 The author explains a number of the riddles and provides evidence for both the identity of the mapmaker and the source of the parchment used and she applies current knowledge of medieval Norse culture and exploration to counter widespread misinformation about Norse voyages to North America and about the Norse world picture Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal, 1915 Gender in Post-9/11 American Apocalyptic TV Eve Bennett, 2019-01-10 In the years following 9 11 American TV developed a preoccupation with apocalypse Science fiction and fantasy shows ranging from Firefly to Heroes from the rebooted Battlestar Galactica to Lost envisaged scenarios in which world changing disasters were either threatened or actually took place During the same period numerous commentators observed that the American media s representation of gender had undergone a marked regression possibly it was suggested as a consequence of the 9 11 attacks and the feelings of weakness and insecurity they engendered in the nation s men Eve Bennett investigates whether the same impulse to return to traditional images of masculinity and femininity can be found in the contemporary cycle of apocalyptic series programmes which like 9 11 itself present plenty of opportunity for narratives of damsels in distress and heroic male rescuers However as this book shows whether such narratives play out in the expected manner is another matter The Bookseller, 1915 Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle James Silk Buckingham, John Sterling, Frederick Denison Maurice, Henry Stebbing, Charles Wentworth Dilke, Thomas Kibble

Hervey, William Hepworth Dixon, Norman Maccoll, Vernon Horace Rendall, John Middleton Murry, 1839 The Catholic Who's who and Yearbook Francis Cowley Burnand, 1936 New York Magazine , 1989-12-04 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea
