Conundrum Charissa Bremer-David, 2015-12-15 The whimsical imagery of four tapestries in the permanent collection of the J Paul Getty Museum and currently on display at the Getty Center is perplexing Created in France at the Beauvais manufactory between 1690 and 1730 these charming hangings unlike most French tapestries of the period appear to be purely decorative with no narrative thread no theological moral and no allegorical symbolism They belong to a series called the Grotesques inspired by ancient frescos discovered during the excavation of the Roman emperor Nero's Domus Aurea or Golden House but the origins of their mysterious subject matter have long eluded art historians Based on seven years of research Conundrum: Puzzles in the Grotesques Tapestry Series reveals for the first time that the artist responsible for these designs Jean Baptiste Monnoyer 1636-1699 actually incorporated dozens of motifs and vignettes from a surprising range of sources antique statuary Renaissance prints Mannerist tapestry and Baroque art as well as contemporary seventeenth century urban festivals court spectacle and theater Conundrum illustrates the most interesting of these sources alongside full color details and overall views of the four tapestries The book's informative and engaging essay identifies and decodes the tapestries' intriguing visual puzzles enlightening our understanding and appreciation of the series unexpectedly rich intellectual underpinnings

Pierrot and his world Marika Takanishi Knowles, 2024-01-09 Pierrot a theatrical stock character known by his distinctive costume of loose white tunic and trousers is a ubiquitous figure in French art and culture This richly illustrated book offers an account of Pierrot's recurrence in painting printmaking photography and film tracing this distinctive type from the art of Antoine Watteau to the cinema of Occupied France As a visual type Pierrot thrives at the intersection of theatrical and marketplace practices From Watteau's Pierrot c. 1720 and Édouard Manet's The Old Musician 1862 to Nadar and Adrien Tournachon's Pierrot the Photographer 1855 and the landmark film Children of Paradise 1945

Pierrot has given artists a medium through which to explore the marketplace as a form for both social life and creative practice. Simultaneously a human figure and a theatrical mask, Pierrot elicits artistic reflection on the representation of personality in the marketplace.

The Hero's Life Choice. Studies on Heracles at the Crossroads, the Judgement of Paris, and Their Reception Malcolm Davies, 2023-09-04

Two allegorical ancient Greek stories about a young hero's career defining choice are shown in this book to have later been appropriated to radically differing effects. E.g. a male's choice between female personifications can morph into a female's choice between the same or between various male personifications. Never before have so many instances of this process from art literature music even landscape gardening been culled. Illustrations mainly colour many brought into this context for the first time are conveniently incorporated into the text thus mimetically mirroring a central theme of the book: the process of visualising the verbal, verbalising the visual.
