Wax and gold: tradition and innovation in Ethiopian culture Chic., Univ Donald Nathan Levine, Wax and Gold Donald Levine, 2007-01-01 This unique interpretation of Ethiopian society uses the tools of history sociology anthropology and psychology to examine three main questions What is the nature of the traditional culture of the Amhara and what are its enduring values and beliefs What aspects of modern culture interest this society and by means has it sought to institutionalize them How does tradition both facilitate and impede Ethiopian efforts to modernization Using the insights and the tools of several disciplines Professor Donald Levine looks on Amhara culture as history as an outlook on life a way of growing up a social structure a kind of psychological orientation and finally as a combination of opposites With acuity and sensitivity he describes the strains upon the traditional culture made by the needs for modernization and the problems which face young and old in making this rapid transition The author has found one key to Ethiopian society in its poetry where the wax is the obvious meaning the gold the hidden meaning He finds reflections of this ambiguity at all levels of Ethiopian culture and holds that an appreciation of it is essential to understanding the problems facing Ethiopians in their movement toward modernization and their unique role among African nations Since its first publication forty years ago Wax and Gold has become a basic source for the studies of Ethiopia and a provocative model for the study of African and other modernizing nations Honour in African History John Iliffe, 2005 This is the first published account of the role played by ideas of honour in African history from the fourteenth century to the present day It argues that appreciation of these ideas is essential to an understanding of past and present African behaviour Before European conquest many African men cultivated heroic honour others admired the civic virtues of the patriarchal householder and women honoured one another for industry endurance and devotion to their families These values both conflicted and blended with Islamic and Christian teachings Colonial conquest fragmented heroic cultures but inherited ideas of honour found new expression in regimental loyalty respectability professionalism working class masculinity the changing gender relationships of the colonial order and the nationalist movements which overthrew that order Today the same inherited notions obstruct democracy inspire resistance to tyranny and motivate the defence of dignity in the face of AIDS
