Ways Of The Riversarts And Environment Of The Niger Delta:

Ways of the Rivers Martha G. Anderson, Philip M. Peek, 2002 The essays assembled in this lavishly illustrated volume are unique in considering issues of cultural convergence and divergence within a single region in Africa They examine and celebrate the water related ethos and the warrior ethos that are present throughout the Delta and explore the influence of its unique environment on beliefs and material culture Ways of the Rivers Lyn Avins, 2002 The Izon of the Niger Delta Ebiegberi Joe Alagoa, John Pepper Clark, 2009-12-29 The Izon of the Niger Delta is a global history of the Izon Ijo or Ijaw people from their homelands in the Niger Delta through Nigeria the West and Central African coastlands and in the Africa diaspora into Europe the America s and the Caribbean It is a preliminary study which raises questions and opens ground for further research The book provides chapters that take an overview of issues on the environment of the Niger Delta an analysis of the Ijo population the language culture resources history and linkage to the rest of Nigeria and the world In effect these chapters provide a synopsis of the Ijo in the past and their situation in the present The Literature and Arts of the Niger Delta Tanure Ojaide, Enajite Eseoghene Ojaruega, 2021-04-19 This book examines the depiction of the Delta region of Nigeria through literature and other cultural art forms The Niger Delta has been thrust into the global limelight due to resource extraction and conflict but it is also a region with a rich culture environment and heritage The creative imagination of the area s artists has been fuelled by the area s pressing concerns of indigenous peoples minority discourse environmental degradation climate change multinational corporations greed dictatorship and people s struggle for control of their resources Taking a holistic approach to the Niger Delta experience this book showcases artistic responses from literature visual arts and performances such as masquerades dances and festivals Chapters cover authors artists and performers such as Ben Okri Ken Saro Wiwa Isidore Okpewho J P Clark and Bruce Onobrakpeya as well as topics like the famous Benin bronze figures and Urhobo Udje dance Affirming the wealth and diversity of the region which continues to inspire creative artistic productions The Literature and Arts of the Niger Delta will be of interest to researchers of African literature arts and other cultural productions Environment and Conflict John Agbonifo, 2018-07-11 Environmental degradation is a fast growing problem that not only threatens to erode future development and undermine economic prosperity but also victimizes and displaces ordinary peoples and communities in some of the most fragile areas of the world Often grassroots opposition and mobilization is seen through a secular lens implying that collective action is merely material and provincial In this book John Agbonifo argues for a decolonization of the environment and to see the environment from the perspective of local communities He examines the case of the Ogoni struggle against the Shell oil company and asks how may we understand the struggle of the Ogoni against the state and Shell Was the conflict merely about a minority ethnic drive at securing provincial advantages in distributional matters or the legitimate actions of a local community aimed at preserving its environment and livelihood Exploring the material and symbolic provincial and nationalist dimensions of Ogoni motivation Agbonifo s book is the first serious attempt to discuss these issues The book will appeal to scholars and students of the Niger Delta conflicts resource related conflicts and social movements in Africa and elsewhere Those researching in the fields of development studies political geography civil society and collective action will also find it useful Christian Churches and Nigeria's Political Economy of Oil and Conflict Nkem Emerald Osuigwe, 2014-09-18 The received account on African evangelical Christianity regarding social witness in a section of Western scholarship is that it is anti development and a political Such an account heavily draws from an instrumentalist and functionalist assessment of such Christianity without recourse to its emic perspective Using the case study method this book presents an ethnographic examination of this functionalist reading by investigating describing and analysing evangelical Christian theological and socio political consciousness within the context of oil and conflict in Nigeria s Niger Delta region Adopting approaches from practical theology congregational studies and anthropology of religion the author challenges such a reading using data gathered from three congregations in the region His discourse revolves around answers to the following four critical questions What are the underlying theological issues and beliefs of Nigerian evangelical Christians within the context of oil and conflict What is their prevalent praxis within the context of Nigeria s political economy of oil and conflict How accurate is the received account that African evangelical and fundamentalist Christianity lacks social responsibility and is a political and anti development What would a contextual political theology for Nigeria s political economy of oil look like The theological issues are varied and the prevalent praxis nuanced which then serves as a veritable critique of the claim that African evangelical Christianity lacks social responsibility due to its preoccupation with soul winning Whereas such Christianity places much emphasis on the winning of souls as an expression of its spirituality it is neither oblivious nor indifferent to its socio political milieu Rather it sees such spirituality as a form of political praxis Some of the trajectories of the spirituality include a theology of conversion a theology of prayer and an ethics of crude oil with Total Freedom as the nomenclature for the specific theological perspective offered for Nigeria s political economy of oil While locating this theological perspective within the taxonomy of Liberation Theology the affinity and dissonance between the two are identified Critical Landscapes Kirsten J Swenson, 2015-06-02 From Francis Al s and Ursula Biemann to Vivan Sundaram Allora Calzadilla and the Center for Urban Pedagogy some of the most compelling artists today are engaging with the politics of land use including the growth of the global economy climate change sustainability Occupy movements and the privatization of public space Their work pivots around a set of evolving questions In what ways is land formed over the course of geological time also contemporary and formed by the conditions of the present How might art contribute to the expansion of spatial and environmental justice Editors Emily Eliza Scott and Kirsten Swenson bring together a range of international voices and artworks to illuminate this critical mass of practices One of the first comprehensive treatments of land use in contemporary art Critical Landscapes skillfully surveys the stakes and concerns of recent land based practices outlining the art historical contexts methodological strategies and geopolitical phenomena This cross disciplinary collection is destined to be an essential reference not only within the fields of art and art history but also across those of cultural geography architecture and urban planning environmental history and landscape studies The Ashgate Research Companion to Monsters and the Monstrous Asa Simon Mittman, Peter J. Dendle, 2017-02-24 The field of monster studies has grown significantly over the past few years and this companion provides a comprehensive guide to the study of monsters and the monstrous from historical regional and thematic perspectives The collection reflects the truly multidisciplinary nature of monster studies bringing in scholars from literature art history religious studies history classics and cultural and media studies The companion will offer scholars and graduate students the first comprehensive and authoritative review of this emergent field *National Endowment for the Humanities ...
