Locating Cultural Creativity John Liep, 2001-02-20 This book reexamines the interconnectedness of culture and creativity in an increasingly hybrid world They argue that while many of the old certainties about high culture and artistic canons may now be disintegrating culture and creativity themselves are still very much a reflection of social processes involving power and the control of resources Case studies include youth subcultures in Europe experimental theatre derived from the Brazilian candomblé dance the role of memory in mythology among the Pukapukan of Polynesia the evolution of football and polo in Argentina gender relations in Algerian rai music the notion of authenticity in artistic movements in Zanzibar traditional and modern practices of the Lio in Indonesia and kula exchange and social movements in the Trobriand Islands in the Pacific

A Papuan Plutocracy John Liep, 2009-08-31 This book of classic scope is a monograph on a Melanesian society an exploration of ranked exchange and a bold critique of anthropological exchange theory John Liep unravels the complex society and exchange system on Rossel Island east of New Guinea At centre stage is the famous Rossel Island money a hierarchy of more than twenty classes of sea shells displayed in payment rituals such as bridewealth and pig feasts High ranking shells are monopolized by big men who control exchange and dominate social life on the island Theories of reciprocity and gift exchange with their built in utopian assumption of social equality Liep finds cannot account for a system of ranked exchange Instead exchange is unequal and money an instrument of distinction and power Liep argues that ranked exchange has remained undiscovered as a general phenomenon Still found in some Pacific societies it was formerly widespread in Oceania and beyond The book will be essential to students of indigenous currencies and exchange theory and of interest to economic anthropologists and Oceanists

Where the River Ends Shaylih Muehlmann, 2013-05-23 Living in the northwest of Mexico the Cucap people have relied on fishing as a means of subsistence for generations but in the last several decades that practice has been curtailed by water scarcity and government restrictions The Colorado River once met the Gulf of California near the village where Shaylih Muehlmann conducted ethnographic research but now as a result of a treaty 90 percent of the water from the Colorado is diverted before it reaches Mexico The remaining water is increasingly directed to the manufacturing industry in Tijuana and Mexicali Since 1993 the Mexican government has denied the Cucap people fishing rights on environmental grounds While the Cucap have continued to fish in the Gulf of California federal inspectors and the Mexican military are pressuring them to stop The government maintains that the Cucap are not sufficiently indigenous to warrant preferred fishing rights Like many indigenous people in Mexico most Cucap people no longer speak their indigenous language they are highly integrated into nonindigenous social networks Where the River Ends is a moving look at how the Cucap people have experienced and responded to the diversion of the Colorado River and the Mexican state s attempts to regulate the environmental crisis that followed
