A Companion to Wittgenstein on Education Michael A. Peters, Jeff Stickney, 2017-05-03 This book bringing together contributions by forty five authors from fourteen countries represents mostly new material from both emerging and seasoned scholars in the field of philosophy of education Topics range widely both within and across the four parts of the book Wittgenstein s biography and style as an educator and philosopher illustrating the pedagogical dimensions of his early and late philosophy Wittgenstein s thought and methods in relation to other philosophers such as Cavell Dewey Foucault Hegel and the Buddha contrasting investigations of training in relation to initiation into forms of life emotions mathematics and the arts dance poetry film and drama including questions from theory of mind nativism vs initiation into social practices neuroscience primate studies constructivism and relativity and the role of Wittgenstein s philosophy in religious studies and moral philosophy as well as their profound impact on his own life This collection explores Wittgenstein not so much as a philosopher who provides a method for teaching or analyzing educational concepts but rather as one who approaches philosophical questions from a pedagogical point of view Wittgenstein s philosophy is essentially pedagogical he provides pictures drawings analogies similes jokes equations dialogues with himself questions and wrong answers experiments and so on as a means of shifting our thinking or of helping us escape the pictures that hold us captive

The Globalization of Internationalization Hans de Wit, Jocelyne Gacel-Ávila, Elspeth Jones, Nico Jooste, 2017-01-20 The Globalization of Internationalization is a timely text which gives voice to emerging perspectives as an increasing range of countries engage in the process of internationalization The pressure to internationalize cannot be ignored by institutions anywhere in today s world yet the dominant paradigms in the conception of internationalization traditionally come from the English speaking world and Western Europe This book sets out to offer alternative viewpoints Different dimensions and interpretations of internationalization in countries and regions whose perspectives have received little attention to date provide food for thought and help to broaden understanding of its application in alternative contexts Combining diverse perspectives from around the world this new volume in the Internationalization in Higher Education series seeks answers to key questions such as What are the main characteristics of internationalization viewed from different cultural and regional backgrounds and how do they differ from traditional models such as in Western Europe North America and Australasia What issues in different global contexts have an impact on internationalization processes What are the key challenges and obstacles encountered in developing innovative and non traditional models of internationalization With contributions from world renowned international authors and perspectives from countries and contexts seen only rarely in the literature The Globalization of Internationalization offers distinctive overviews and insights while exploring a range of thematic and regional issues arising from these considerations This will be essential reading both as an academic resource and a practical manual for university leaders academics higher education policy advisers and non governmental organizations which fund higher education
