The Unknown City The Lives Of Poor And Working Class Young Adults:

The Unknown City Michelle Fine, 1999-02-18 The young people defined as Gen Xers in the media and popular imagination almost never include poor or working class young adults These young people a huge and important part of our society are misrepresented and silent in our national conversation In The Unknown City Michelle Fine and Lois Weis offer a groundbreaking theoretically sophisticated ethnography of the lives of young adults ages 23 to 35 based on hundreds of interviews We discover their views on everything from the construction of whiteness and affirmative action to the economy education and new public spaces of community hope Finally Fine and Weis point to what is being done and what should be done in terms of national policy to improve the future of these remarkable women and men The American Class Structure in an Age of Growing Inequality Dennis Gilbert, 2011 In this Eighth Edition of his acclaimed and thought provoking text author Dennis Gilbert explores historical and contemporary empirical studies of class inequality in America through the lens of nine key variables Focusing on the socioeconomic core of the American class system Gilbert describes a consistent pattern of growing inequality in the United States since the early 1970s In his search for the answer to why class disparities continue to increase Gilbert examines changes in the economy family life and politics drawing on vivid first person accounts to illustrate the human emotion wrapped up in class issues Studying Urban Youth Culture Primer Greg Dimitriadis, 2008 This book provides a concise introduction to the practical and theoretical complexities of studying urban youth culture today Looking across disciplines such as anthropology sociology and education Dimitriadis explores the ways urban youth have been framed in often limiting and problematic ways in the popular and academic imagination Moving beyond critique alone this highly accessible primer opens a discussion about what a truly powerful emergent field of critical youth studies might look like Looking toward the future of this field this book discusses the most important methodological and substantive trends and issues scholars will be addressing now and in the years to come The Studying Urban Youth Culture Primer is an indispensable text for students in a range of qualitative methods and urban education courses Learning to Labor in New Times Nadine Dolby, Greg Dimitriadis, 2013-01-11 Learning to Labor in New Times foregrounds nine essays which re examine the work of noted sociologist Paul Willis 25 years after the publication of his seminal Learning to Labor one of the most frequently cited and assigned texts in the cultural studies and social foundations of education Racism without Racists Eduardo Bonilla-Silva, 2006-08-03 The first edition of this best selling book showed that alongside the subtle forms of discrimination typical of the post Civil Rights era new powerful ideology of color blind racism has emerged Bonilla Silva documented how beneath the rhetorical maze of contemporary racial discourse lies a full blown arsenal of arguments phrases and stories that whites use to account for and ultimately justify racial inequities In the new edition Bonilla Silva has added a chapter dealing with the future of racial stratification in America that goes beyond the white black dichotomy He argues that the U S is developing a more complex and apparently plural racial order that will mimic Latin American patterns of racial stratification Another new chapter addresses a variety of questions from readers of the first edition And he has updated the book throughout with new information data and references where appropriate The book ends with a new Postscript What is to be Done For Real As in the highly acclaimed first edition Bonilla Silva continues to challenge color blind thinking

Manufactured Insecurity Esther Sullivan, 2018-08-07 Manufactured Insecurity is the first book of its kind to provide an in depth investigation of the social legal geospatial and market forces that intersect to create housing insecurity for an entire class of low income residents Drawing on rich ethnographic data collected before during and after mobile home park closures and community wide evictions in Florida and Texas the two states with the largest mobile home populations Manufactured Insecurity forces social scientists and policymakers to respond to a fundamental question how do the poor access and retain secure housing in the face of widespread poverty deepening inequality and scarce legal protection With important contributions to urban sociology housing studies planning and public policy the book provides a broader understanding of inequality and social welfare in the United States today

The World, 1997 Women's Lives Kathleen J. Ferraro, 2009 An anthology of poetry personal narratives research reports and theoretical analyses that depict ongoing relevance of gender to people's experiences

The National Basic Livelihood Security System in Korea Joon Yong Jo, 2007

(Mis)Understanding Families Monica Miller Marsh, Tammy Turner-Vorbeck, 2009-12-10 This practical resource will help educators to identify address and meet the needs of the diverse families in today's classrooms It is the first book to critically examine how families are represented in the media schools and other institutions and apply that information to build effective home school partnerships The authors examine how different relationships between families and teachers are defined by discourses that circulate through formal and informal curricula They explore how families and educators can collectively reconceptualize these conversations to create positive educational experiences for children Discussion questions are included in each chapter so that readers can examine their working relationships with the families of their students

Latinas Negotiating "traffic" Irma Morales Waugh, 2006

The Boys in the Hood David E. Kirkland, 2006

Performing Identity/performing Culture Greg Dimitriadis, 2001 This ethnography studies young people and their use of hip hop culture Drawing from historical work on hip hop and rap music as well as four years of research at a local community center the author argues that contemporary youth are increasingly fashioning notions of self and community outside of school in ways that educators have largely ignored Attention is given to the influence of artists like the Sugarhill Gang Run DMC Eric B and Rakim Public Enemy NWA and the Wu Tang Clan
