Too Wet To Plow The Family Farm In Transition:

Too Wet to Plow Jeanne Simonelli, 1990 Anthropologist Simonelli writes vividly her prose a moving testimonial to the courage farming takes The Book Review Portrait of a Farm Family Raymond Bial, 1995 Presents a fourth generation farm family in Illinois describing their work and other activities and explaining why it s becoming increasingly hard for a family farm to survive Part Time Farming, Small Farms and Farming in the United States Mary V. Gold, 1993

Crossing Between Worlds Jeanne M. Simonelli, 2008-03-07 The Navajo people of Canyon de Chelly must negotiate a delicate balance between the old and the new as they struggle to maintain their traditional ways of life in the midst of archaeologists U S Park Service employees and the increasing numbers of tourists who come to visit this hauntingly beautiful part of northeastern Arizona Anthropologist writer Jeanne Simonelli who worked at Canyon de Chelly as a seasonal park ranger interweaves stories of her personal experiences and friendships with canyon residents with discussions of native history and culture in the region Focusing on the members of one extended Navajo family Simonelli describes the small moments of their daily lives shearing goats baking bread attending a solemn all night health ceremony washing clothes at the local laundromat playing traditional games and contemporary sports talking about the history of the Dinthe Navajo people and pondering the changes they have witnessed in the canyon and the difficulties they confront Crossing Between Worlds is sumptuously illustrated with insightful black and white photographs that document the everyday activities of Navajo families in one of the most spectacular corners of the American Southwest Quick Bibliography Series, 1976

Here to Help: NGOs Combating Poverty in Latin America Robyn Eversole, 2016-07-08 Over six billion dollars in developmental assistance is funneled annually through non governmental organizations NGOs yet little is understood about the nature of their relationship with communities and the real impact of their work This book examines what role NGOs really play in fighting poverty in Latin America Expert NGO professionals and scholars explore grass roots relationships between international religious and secular NGOs and poor communities They probe the power structures cultural assumptions dangers and possibilities that underlie NGOs work While fighting poverty is the mission of many NGOs most are aware that they often fail to make things better and in fact may make things worse By providing a forum for Northern and Southern NGOs donors scholars and poor people themselves this book explores the causes and cures of poverty and presses at the boundaries of our understanding of participatory development It identifies both internal and external factors that influence the success of NGO projects and moves beyond standard best practice theory to probe more deeply the relationships that underlie poverty and how these relationships can be shifted to achieve solutions The Handbook of Sociocultural Anthropology James G. Carrier, Deborah B. Gewertz, 2020-06-29 he Handbook of Sociocultural Anthropology presents a state of the art overview of the subject its methodologies current debates history and future It will provide the ultimate source of authoritative critical descriptions of all the key aspects of the discipline as well as a consideration of the general state of the discipline at a time when there is notable uncertainty about its foundations composition and direction Divided into five core sections the Handbook examines the changing theoretical and analytical orientations that have led to new ways of carrying out research presents an analysis of the traditional historical core and how the discipline has changed since 1980 considers the ethnographic regions where work has had the greatest impact on anthropology as a whole outlines the people and institutions that are the context in which the discipline operates covering topics from research funding to professional ethics Bringing together leading international scholars the Handbook provides a guide to the latest research in social and cultural anthropology Presenting a systematic overview and offering a wide range of examples insights and analysis it will be an invaluable resource for researchers and students in anthropology as well as cultural and social geography cultural studies and sociology

Foundations of First Peoples' Sovereignty Ulrike Wiethaus, 2007 Foundations of First Peoples Sovereignty is an innovative collection of essays offering interdisciplinary perspectives on the topic of sovereignty for Indigenous nations Presenting contemporary initiatives and scholarship in the humanities on behalf of First Peoples the volume affirms and explores the dynamic interplay between tribal community action and reflection academic work and the commonalities shared by Indigenous nations globally

Births And Power W. Penn Handwerker, 2019-04-11 This book challenges orthodox public perspectives on reproduction It relies on participant observation field censuses interviews and use of official demographic epidemiological and health statistics

Uprising of Hope Duncan Earle, Jeanne Simonelli, 2005-01-18 The Zapatistas of Chiapas Mexico have often been portrayed in reductive polarized terms either as saintly activists or dangerous rebels Cultural anthropologists Duncan Earle and Jeanne Simonelli drawing on decades long relationships and fieldwork attained a collegiality with the Zapatistas that reveals a more complex portrait of a people struggling with self determination on every level Seeking a new kind of experimental ethnography Earle Simonelli have chronicled a social experiment characterized by resistance autonomy and communality Combining their own compelling narrative as participant observers and those of their Chiapas compadres the authors effectively call for an activist approach to research The result is a unique ethnography that is at once analytical and deeply personal Uprising of Hope will be compelling reading for scholars and general readers of anthropology social justice ethnography Latin American history and ethnic studies

Family and Farm John W. Shaffer, 1983-06-30 Family and Farm is the history of the communautes the large patriarchal households of central France from the close of the medieval era to the nineteenth century These households were unique in that they often included as many as twenty members holding property in common Far from having roots in any cultural bias or folkloric tradition the communautes were organized to enable individual families to meet the demands imposed by the social economic and physical environments in which they lived The book examines household composition the role of kinship inheritance and successive strategies and the nature of interpersonal relations The period covered by the study includes the collapse of feudalism the rise of the modern state the French revolution and the emergence of agrarian capitalism Each crisis posed fundamental problems of survival for peasant families and the organization of households constituted a crucial means by which that survival was ensured
